DAHLONEGA'S MINES.

Mr. Albright, of Blue Ridge, Ga., Writes About Them.

To the Editor of the NUGGET:
Please insert this article in your valuable paper:

I have read many reports on Dahlonega and its gold fields from time to time for many years, some of them very misleading and base fabrications of fabulous wealth, and no doubt paid for by owners of gold lots that were for sale, to induce unsophisticated capitalists to drop their wads. And again we have read reports very denunciatory of the Camp no doubt inspired by the failures of those that had bought without investigating, on above false reports, but for all that there is not in the United States a more interesting gold field than Dahlonega and its surroundings.

In early days, long before California was thought of, gold was mined in every rill and branch and creek, and on every hill top for many miles round about Dahlonega, and in those days the quantity of gold that was mined was never exceeded in any gold camp in California, and the wild scenes of a rich mining camp were only repeated, but never outdone in the Wild West.

The gold output was so rich that the government was induced to establish a mint at Dahlonega which was yet in active operation when the Civil War broke out, when it was discontinued and the building and grounds donated to the state of Georgia for educational purposes. From its discovery till the present day gold mining has not ceased at Dahlonega and millions have been made and lost during this time, like in all great mining camps of the world. The failures in general may be attributed to unwise and extravagant methods of mining, and always as a rule, to men of no mining experience, or business experience of any kind.

It is true the gold belt, or field, of Dahlonega is unlike any other known in America, and for that matter in the world, and therefore is a puzzle to the best of Western mining experts and Freiberg scientific fellows, and until they have been in this action a while and have studied the formation of the country and its gold bearing rocks, they are the most misleading agents to consult on a mining proposition about Dahlonega, that can be found.

I now look back some 18 years when I happened to visit Dahlonega for the first time, and when to my certain knowledge there were 10 quartz mills in operation having from 5 to 60 stamps each, all making money and all were superintended by native miners, working them in "that old fashioned way" which long experience had taught them, and invariably, when these plants changed hands to be operated by Western, or Northern, or English capitalists, on new and grand ideas, they came to grief.

The gold bearing section about Dahlonega is not exhausted, but to the contrary, it is hardly scratched. It is true that the rich gulches and creeks that yielded to the early prospectors who worked them by pan, rocker and long-tom, from twenty-five to several hundred pennyweights per day, have in a manner been exhausted, but they have been, and are still worked and yield a small profit to the workers, and the veins and the decomposed chert dikes have only been worked to a small depth of from fifty to a hundred feet. The quartz leads have never been systematically worked to any depth.

In the last three years there have been organized two large gold mining companies which were incorporated and stocked up in - to the millions - The Consolidated and the Crown Mountain.

Both of these companies have brought into play the most improved and approved machinery for the reduction of ores and extraction of gold, and have spent hundreds of thousands of dollars in that way, and it is hoped and believed that they will ultimately succeed in making big money.

It is especially predicted by the people about here that the Crown Mountain Company will meet with great success, and only by reason of their economical methods of working their plant, is this predicted, for, as the two propositions are concerned the Consolidated Co. can boast of as rich, and richer veins, and likely of greater extent than the Crown Mountain people.

It has been the misfortune of the Consolidated people of not having had from the start a man as manager possessed of large mining experience to conduct and direct the affairs of the company. Mining is essentially a science, but is not so recognized by the masses. In nearly all other businesses and enterprises experience and knowledge is looked for, and employed, to take hold of, and direct and lead, but not so in mining, and in nine cases out of ten is failure in mining due to this cause. Mining is entirely different from any other enterprise. In that the people expect different results from a mining enterprise than from any other legitimate business. A man with a few shares of stock in a new organized gold mining company becomes important at once, and deems himself fixed for life, but if the stock of his company, which he has bought at ten cents on the dollar does not at once rise to par, or several points above that, and the company does not declare a dividend at that rate, his bubble has burst, and he dams the whole business of mining, and condemns his own property and those that have the fewest shares make the loudest noise. A bank may burst, or a large mercantile establishment go to the wall, that is looked upon as a matter of course, but not so in mining failures. It is looked upon almost as criminal.

When I speak of a mining failure I speak of it as a proposition that has not earned sufficient to pay a dividend from the start, as the stockholders had anticipated. Many a mine that has proved a failure thus from the start, has afterward proved a bonanza, which we predict may be the result here whenever proper and judicial methods are employed in mining. Now to come back to the Consolidated Mining Co. of Dahlonega, we will say: We do not think that all the criticism bestowed upon the former management of the company is just, especially when made by the people that received the greatest benefit from errors made.

The errors that were made, were made by reason of inexperience, not with fraudulent intent by the manager of the company. Of course the money that has been mispent will not be recovered. It is a loss, but all the gold that was in the property when it was bought has not "rotted" on account of the mistakes made, and will no doubt be brought out by the present management. If the course will be pursued in future, as we learn from a reliable source it will be, to work the property, and that all the old mills will be rehabilitated and put to crushing the ores from the different old, and known veins, and from the newly rich strikes; then there need be no doubt about the property paying a fair return in the near future. All that is wanted in good mining patience and perseverance.

W. L. ALBRIGHT.

The Stock Law Election.

As application has recently been made by certain citizens of Mill Creek and Auraria districts asking for an election to be ordered in each of these districts, we give the names of those making the application so as to show who wants it worst. They are as follows:

Mill Creek District.—W. J. Burt, Ed. Corn, C. C. Perry, J. W. Perry, W. Gayden, E. C. Mote, N. M. Williams, J. A. Williams, Jess Mote, Wm. Chambers, A. D. Gayden, J. G. Perry, T. A. Powers, D. M. Mote, Jos. Barren, Drew Mote, W. W. Sullivan, J. L. Corn, W. S. Baker, H. L. Robertson, J. P. Hall, making 21.

Auraria District.—E. C. Reeves, J. C. Cothran, John Wilson, J. S. Owens, J. W. Sosby, O. G. T. Stevens, W. M. Smith, Nancy Chapman, John Grindle, N. C. Tankesley, Alice Chambers, Robt. Wood, M. E. Wood, J. T. Miller, D. Howell, J. H. Sumerover, 16.

Under an act of 1899 it requires all districts hereafter carried for stock law to be fenced. This was carried to the Supreme Court and declared constitutional to be found in 112th Georgia Reports, page 578. We mention this so that all voters will know just exactly what has to be done. In case such fences are not built within six months after the stock law carries it does not go into effect.

Story of Eleven Poor Boys.

John Adams, the second president, was the son of a grocer of very moderate means. The only start he had was a good education.

Andrew Jackson was born in a log hut in North Carolina, and was reared in the pine woods, for which the state is famous.

James K. Polk spent the earlier years of his life helping to dig a lying out of a new farm in North Carolina. He was afterward a clerk in a country store.

Millard Fillmore was the son of a New York farmer, and his home was a humble one. He learned the business of a clothier.

James Buchanan was born in a small town in the Allegheny Mountains. His father cut the logs and built the house in what was then a wilderness.

Abraham Lincoln was the son of a wretchedly poor farmer in Kentucky, and lived in a log cabin until he was twenty-one years old.

Andrew Johnson was apprenticed in a tailor at the age of ten years by his widowed mother. He was never able to attend a school, and picked up all the education he had.

Ulysses S. Grant lived the life of a village boy in a plain house on the Banks of the Ohio River, until he was seventeen years of age.

James A. Garfield was born in a log cabin. He worked on the farm until he was strong enough to use carpenter's tools, when he learned the trade. He afterwards worked on a canal.

Grover Cleveland's father was a Presbyterian minister with a small salary and a large family. The boys had to earn their living.

William McKinley's early home was plain and comfortable, and his father unable to keep him at school.—California Christian Advocate.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, OCTOBER 1, 1901.

Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O. as Second Class Matter.

All electric wires in Atlanta are being put under ground.

Seven stores at Maysville, Ga., were burglarized in one night last week.

The tickets taken in at the entrance of John Robinson's show the other day in Gainesville were 5,100.

A Hall county man sold a black pet sheep, the only thing he possessed, to get money to go into the circus.

The mayor and council of Gainesville are death on blind tigers. One defendant was fined $200 last week.

The Smith shoe factory will not be moved from Gainesville. Its present capacity is 1,000 pairs of shoes per day.

The breaking out of the scarlet fever in Blue Ridge last week has caused much uneasiness among the people of that city.

The other day at Cleveland, O., a crazy mother threw four of her children in a well and then plunged after them. All were drowned.

The price of cotton is not very encouraging to the farmers. It is not near as high as the guano men said it would be when remarking their sales of acid, etc.

It is a coincidence that our three assassinated presidents were shot on Friday—Lincoln, Friday, April 4, 1865; Garfield, Friday, July 2, 1881; McKinley, Friday, Sept. 6, 1901.

The mayor of Gainesville charges defendants from $10 to $25 for big drunks, and besides this sometimes binds them over to the Superior Court, which causes people to be more temperate down that way.

Before Governor Candler was elected Governor the first time he said that he was going to make an effort to stop the leaks in the State treasury. But instead of doing this the whole head has been knocked loose, letting everything run out and now the treasury is as "dry as a chip."

The slayer of the president has been sentenced to be executed the week beginning October 28—exact date not fixed yet. Czolgosz said that no person had anything to do with the murder, that no other person knew of his intention but himself. His father or no one else knew anything about it.

Dolly Pritchett of Cherokee county has refused to leave her life-time chain-gang home to enter the Christian Home so kindly provided for her by the good women and others of the State, hence she will probably remain in chain-gang many years before an absolute pardon is granted her and she is released from chain-gang life.

Booker Washington's idea that the whole country is partially responsible for the death of Mr. McKinley because of the lynchings that have occurred is not true. Says the Columbus Enquirer, and we agree with that paper in saying that while it may be a fact that lynching is a defiance of law and therefore a species of anarchy, lynching itself cannot in any sense be held as the cause, either directly or indirectly, of the president's assassination.

It is announced that Hon. John D. Little, speaker of the Georgia house of representatives, has decided to retire from politics, and in the same connection it is stated that he has formed a co-partnership with Hon. Charlton E. Battle for the purpose of practicing law.—Albany Herald. While it is true that the partnership referred to will be formed, there is nothing to warrant the statement that Major Little will retire from politics. Major Little is a young man, and there are many high political honors in store for him.—Columbus Sun.

Mining Notes

E. E. Crisson has bought a good mining lot adjoining the John Weaver farm.

Development work is still going on up at Cavender's Creek by Capt. Asbury. One eight foot vein opened up shows gold from one end of it to the other.

Mr. Ashley is endeavoring to go up the Yahoola creek with his dredge boat the other day ran a ground close to the bridge where it will likely remain until a small freshet comes.

The canal up at the Crown Mountain power plant burst first of the week, but a force of some sixty hands were put to work causing only a day or two partial delay in its operations.

It is believed that the Lombard property near Auraria will soon change hands, as the debts accumulated by Mr. Mayne while prospecting it for the purpose of a sale are being settled off.

In a week or ten days a boat will be commenced by Mr. Ashley, who is dredging in the Chestatee river near Dahlonega for the Hightower to be put in this stream down in Dawson county.

The second boat was completed by Mr. Ashley last week to operate in the Chestatee river. As the machinery of the first is most too heavy for it to operate well it will likely be overhauled and put in better shape.

Since printing our first page on which the Crown Mountain ad. appears we received notice to lift the same out. We didn't ask any questions but the inference is that all the treasury stock of this company is sold.

The assays that have been made below the Crown Mountain mill show a loss of only six cents per ton, proving beyond a doubt that the money spent for costly amalgamating machines is thrown away where a mill is constructed properly and in charge of experienced native miners.

A big new mining scheme is on foot which will open the eyes of our citizens when it is made known through the columns of the Nugget at an early day. It will not be commenced as a speculative scheme but for the purpose of making money by legitimate mining.

On the first page of this issue will be found an interesting article concerning the mines in and about Dahlonega by Mr. Allbright of Blue Ridge, Ga., who is neither directly or indirectly interested in any of them, but only giving his views about them to persons of his acquaintance in the north and elsewhere who are not familiar with the situation here as a matter of news to them.

Mining is still going on successfully down on the Calhoun property being the first place where gold was discovered in this county. It was good then, has been good all along and is the same now and will continue so for years to come. We saw one rock taken from this mine by Mr. Poston last week that was held together by the gold after it was broken. The richness of this property surprises every one who sees it.

A portion of the Singleton mill on the Standard property was started to running last Saturday and the remainder is likely in operation by this time. This is good property and paid well under its former management and we predict a continuation of the same, as the mill is under the supervision of Thomas Ray who thoroughly understands his business. We understand that Mr. Breyman is going to let this mine be run under the Georgia system of mining, laying off all red tape.

The clean up made by J. M. Hutchins last week down on lot 810 was a splendid one and much better than expected, proving this to be a very rich lot as we often predicted before operations began, judging from the tests while being made. We had the pleasure of seeing a bottle of the gold taken from this mine last Monday which was nice enough to cause any one to take the gold fever. Mr. Hutchins will begin preparations next week to commence working this mine on a larger but economical scale. The mill to be increased to 20 stamps and other necessary valuable machinery will be put in.

We called on J. F. Moore, general manager of the Crown Mountain and Milling Company, this week, and asked him to give us, for the benefit of stockholders and the public, the progress being made in actual mining operations. To our questions he replied that he was more than willing to furnish the information desired. In the first place, he said, "The plant is working nicely. The pump is putting on the mountain all the water needed. The cuts being made into the side of the mountain to get up into the saprophyte veins are showing much more gold than was expected. The plates at the mill are looking exceedingly well for the quantity of ore milled, and the flume lines from the cuts to the mill are showing much free gold, several nuggets have been picked up out of the cuts. It must be remembered that the cuts being made are not up to our best saprophyte veins and will not be for some time, but the broken down ore from the veins, and gold in the surface is producing much more of the yellow metal than was anticipated. We will make a partial clean up this week. Much gold must be left on each plate. In fact, before any copper plate is in first class condition to amalgamate, it must be coated with gold amalgam throughout its entire surface." At this point of our conversation we asked Mr. Moore if he was having any difficulty in saying the gold, to which he replied: "No, we have no difficulty whatever. Actual assays of our catches from the concentrators show only seven cents per ton. This small loss is from the ore run through the stamp mill, the free gold in the surface is caught in the flume lines before getting to the mill. Every one connected with the management are happy over the results so far." Then in reply why they hadn't commenced sinking the anticipated shafts said: "We are ready for deep mining and will commence when ever we think it is practicable. It may be that we will not start them until our cuts reach the points considerable lower than where it was intended to sink them, and then start them in the bottom of the cuts, thereby save many feet of shaft work."

McKinley Monument.

As was stated in last week's paper we had received a blank from John A. Brice, of the Atlanta Journal, Ch'm'n of the committee selected to solicit subscriptions to be used in the building of a monument at Atlanta in memory of the late assassinated President, asking us to call attention to the same so that persons desiring to donate any thing might have a chance of sending it to the Nugget as a convenience for the people in this community. The other two members of the committee are: W. B. Roberts of the Atlanta News and Clark Howell of the Constitution. Only the following persons have responded. Let others come forward:

W. H. C. Tate.....$5.00

H. D. Ingersoll.....1.00

H. B. Crawford.....1.00

J. B. Witt.....1.00

Total.....$8.00

Negroes of Richmond, Va., are planning to establish a colony of their race on land three miles below that city on the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway. That track will be divided into plots of ten acres each plot will have a four-roomed log cabin, and negroes who are anxious to better their conditions will be established on these small farms and given the benefit of practical and systematic instruction in farming.

The Governor has offered a reward of $150 for the arrest and delivery to the sheriff of Banks county one Sallie Ward who murdered Sallie Simpson. It does look like a woman might be run down and caught.

You can't make him eat either. You can stuff food into a thin man's stomach but that doesn't make him use it.

Scott's Emulsion can make him use it. How? By making him hungry, of course. Scott's Emulsion makes a thin body hungry all over. Thought a thin body was naturally hungry didn't you? Well it isn't. A thin body is asleep—not working—gone on a strike. It doesn't try to use its food.

Scott's Emulsion wakes it up—puts it to work again making new flesh. That's the way to get fat.

Asthma Cure Free!

Asthmalene Brings Instant Relief and Permanent Cure in All Cases.

SENT ABSOLUTELY FREE ON RECEIPT OF POSTAL. WRITE YOUR NAME AND ADDRESS PLAINLY.

There is nothing like Asthmalene. It brings instant relief, even in the worst cases. It cures when all else fails. The Rev. C. F. WELLS, of Villa Ridge, Ill., says: "Your trial bottle of Asthmalene received in good condition. I cannot tell you how thankful I feel for the good derived from it. I was always a slave, chained with putred sore throat and Asthma for ten years. I despaired of ever being cured. I saw your advertisement for the cure of this dreadful and tormenting disease, Asthma, and thought you had over-spoken yourselves, but resolved to give it a trial. To my astonishment the trial acted like a charm. Send me a full size bottle."

Rev. Dr. Morris Wechsler, Rabbi of the Cong. Bnai Israel, New York, Jan. 3, 1901.

DR. TAFT BROS. MEDICINE CO., Gentlemen: I write this testimony from a sense of duty, having tested the wonderful effect of your Asthmalene for the cure of Asthma. My wife has been afflicted with spasmodic asthma for the past 12 years. Having exhausted my own skill as well as many others, I chanced to see your sign among your windows on 130th Street, New York, I at once obtained a bottle of Asthmalene. My wife commenced taking it about the first of November. I very soon noticed a radical improvement. After using one bottle Asthma has disappeared and she is entirely free from all symptoms. I feel that I can consistently recommend the medicine to all who are afflicted with this distressing disease. Yours respectfully,

O. E. PHELPS, M. D.

DR. TAFT BROS. MEDICINE CO., Gentlemen: I was troubled with asthma for 22 years. I have tried numerous remedies, but they have all failed. I now have your advertisement and started with a trial bottle. I found relief at once. I have also purchased your full size bottle, and I am very grateful. I have family of four and for six years was unable to work. This testimony you can make such use of as you see fit. HONORABLE J. B. HARRINGTON, 8 RAPIER, 67 East 123rd St., City.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, OCTOBER 4, 1901.

Clear the track the railroad's coming.

See tax collectors notice also where.

The Misses Marlow moved to Ducktown this week.

If you want good nice fresh beef call on John H. Moore.

Dahlonega's markets have increased from one to three.

G. D. Bruce contemplates enlarging his photograph gallery.

Just received a lot of visiting cards and stationery. Come and see us.

T. J. Smith has purchased the house and lot formerly occupied by Mr. Marlow.

The person who told us a lie to save ten cents last week will never get to heaven.

Most of the country schools are closing in several of the teachers are returning to college.

Some parties who have been running blind tigers in Dahlonega have skipped out until after house.

If you want to buy a house and lot in Dahlonega in the lower part of the city where Mr. Asbury lives, call at this office.

At Bruce's Gallery you will find a nice lot of picture frames. Call and see them, and then have your photograph made by him to fit them.

J. T. Miller was up the other day looking at R. C. Thompson's fine residence with an eye to purchasing it and becoming a citizen of Dahlonega.

Judge Murray has purchased a fifty foot front off of the Boy Thomas lot on Park Street, which is a very desirable place for a nice dwelling.

There was plenty of produce and corn liquor in town last Monday, causing some of the participants to get quite juicy, not enough however, to be of any benefit to the city treasury.

Mary Ann Jackson, who lived a short distance from Dahlonega and was carried up to the Pauper's Home by her brother-in-law, J. L. Watts, Saturday, died that night. She was in dreadful bad health and had been for some time.

Joseph Allen and his family left out last Saturday morning very early for Atlanta we suppose. He was Notary Public of this district, which leaves a vacancy. If there are any office seekers desiring this position let them make their wishes known to the next grand jury.

Beautiful table damask 54c; mirror and towel rack combined 25; 12 inch brass edge rules 65c; babies pink kid shoes 28. Come to see B. R. Meaders & Sons if you care to save a little money on every dollar spent. Iron wheelbarrows only 4 but will $2.10 each for them.

The other night while sheriff Davis was returning to Dahlonega his mule got frightened down at Cane Creek bridge, causing him to jump out of the buggy in order to save whole bones. The mule ran on for some distance until it was stopped by parties, slightly injuring the buggy.

The other day out in the country after Mrs. Allen Anderson had made a leap to jump a ditch out on the farm she saw a big black snake on the opposite side, but it was too late then to miss it. So down she came on the snake but it wasn't long before the lady ran off one way while the reptile went the other.

Some time ago Pink Davis' son, residing about 7 miles from Gadsden, across the Blue Ridge, came home from Arkansas with the small pox. He was carried off to an out house until he recovered. Since that time two more parties have taken it when it was believed that all danger was over. Young Davis has been up and at work for some time.

New corn opened up at 65 cents from the wagon.

Camp meeting is now in session at Yellow Creek.

New syrup opened up in the Dahlonega market this week at 35 cents per gallon.

Y. G. Abercrombie, of Wahoo, has moved to town this week and occupies the house formerly owned by Mr. Jarard.

Parties desiring Dr. Stow's services will remember that his office is below Main Street bridge and he occupies the brick house on the hill where Signal office used to be located.

Col. H. W. J. Ham, of Gainesville will deliver one of his interesting lectures in Dahlonega tonight (Friday). All those who enjoy something that is good and funny should go out.

We have been sent a pod of pepper this week raised by Mrs. Frank Jones in Dahlonega measuring nine and one-fourth inches round and three inches long. We never saw any pepper as large as it is before.

It won't be long until the new bridge is ready for the traveling public wishing to cross the Chestate river at Hall's mills. The contractors commenced work some days ago, and as soon as Judge Huff fixes the road it will be ready.

The colored public school opened up at this place last Monday. The cause of the delay in the beginning of the term was owing to the school mistress having one of her legs amputated since she last taught here. She is a good teacher and gives general satisfaction to her race.

Last Tuesday was sale day but the sheriff didn't get much commission on the property disposed of. The only lot sold brought just three dollars, not enough to pay the cost. It lay up next to the mountains somewhere full of rock cliffs and a splendid place for rattle snakes to den, so some of the boys say.

It begins to look like this year that parties who own some of the most valuable property in this county desire to pay the least taxes. One agent for mining property belonging to parties residing in New York has only returned it at $5,000 when its owners recently refused to take $30,000 for it. They don't care to leave it, sell it, work it or pay a reasonable tax on it.

The other Sunday some parties in Dahlonega hired a hack and went out into the country after some liquor. After arriving in Dahlonega with the liquid a certain boy stole out part of it and sold it to another boy. As soon as the jug was missed one of the interested parties went back with his pistol and had the stimulants returned to his possession, and all went well thereafter.

They have just closed a big revival out at Mt. Gilford church a few miles from Dahlonega, and most everybody who didn't already belong to the church joined. Last Sunday fifteen were to have been baptized but one of the converts got so drunk Saturday before that he was excused. He was on hand however, feeling worse than the devil, standing off behind a tree occasionally peeping around taking a bird's eye view of the situation, until he saw his wife baptized then he departed as all eyes were upon him wherever he went.

Some time ago the news reached here that Dan Corn, who killed his brother in this county some time ago, died in Texas. And we understand since that time his relatives here had his funeral preached. Some think it was a false alarm at the start and do yet for it, is claimed that he was seen out about home in this county only a few weeks ago. Besides the case against him in Lumpkin Superior Court for murder he has one in the U. S. Court in Atlanta for blocking the trial of which has been set and his bondsmen will have to show that he is dead or be compelled to pay out some money.

The attendance of the N. G. A. College is gradually increasing.

Lumpkin Superior Court convenes on the third Monday in this month.

There seems to be plenty of apples now, bringing but very little in market.

The public roads are beginning to receive attention. Roads are generally good when court comes.

Five states are represented at the N. G. A. College here and many Georgia counties.

To day (Thursday) the New Union Baptist Association convenes at the Baptist church in Dahlonega.

(Morning after the fire) "My, how glad I am I took out that policy! Without it I would be a ruined man to-day."

When wanting any photographic work call on G. D. Bruce who will finish you a job that will compare favorably with that turned out by any big city photographer.

Rev. R. D. Dewesse, who was here and preached several interesting sermons recently at the Baptist church, has been elected its pastor and accepted the same. He and his lady have already arrived.

As it is only a short while now until the election for mayor and two councilmen takes place it is time that our citizens were looking up a set of live, wide awake men to fill the positions who are willing to take a heap of cursing free of charge.

Dahlonega was well represented at the show in Gainesville last week, by both whites and blacks. Those not having the money borrowed it while some others let several honest debts go by the board and gave the money they ought to have settled them off with to the showman which was carried off entirely out of the country. They were bound to see the show. One colored married woman who had a lover, sold her house and her and "Old Sweetie" went. "Sweetie" has since returned but "Honey" remained.

A man never loses anything by telling the truth, more especially when it comes to a newspaper man writing about business matters. As evidence of this fact C. M. Merriek, of New Brighton, Pa., in sending us a nine dollar check for nine yearly subscribers to the Nugget for parties in his city having interests in the Dahlonega gold fields, ends his letter as follows under date of the 25th ult: "They wish to keep posted about the mines in that section and particularly Crown Mountain—as you seem to tell facts—and can be depended upon not to exaggerate, so common in booming a gold field."

All the Signal mail was a day behind last week except that distributed at the Dahlonega postoffice, which would have been behind too had assistant postmaster Tate not went out and made that mail up. Billie, its baby editor, attended the circus in Gainesville and while spreading his mouth one of the clowns threw an orange peeling down his throat. This made him drink a glass of red lemonade besides chewing the stopper of a whiskey bottle, causing him to get tight immediately. Then he fell in company with Pat Raferty who used to be here, and they took in the town, Pat holding the little fellow up between his fingers while he gave the Irish waltz—imaging himself an Irishman on account of being in company with one. Had the police not thought that little Billie was one of the clowns belonging to the show, they would have put him in the lock up. He came home sick and lay up for repairs several days, which accounts for you not getting that "clean, democratic sheet" on time.

Joe Tow died a few days ago up in Chestate district, of scarlet fever, so it is believed by some of the citizens living in that settlement.

A. L. Woody, of Quebec, Ga., while in town Tuesday with a load of cabbage didn't forget the poor printer. He is an active farmer and makes money at the business.

There are still some visitors at Porter Springs. It takes the fall and winter season to drive them away from this famous summer resort.

One of our young merchants desiring to get off to his girls house very early Sunday morning went out and gathered his flowers by lamp light.

The New Union Store has reduced its expenses some more this week by dispensing with the services of another clerk, we understand.

Last Monday morning the Soldiers Home in Atlanta, was totally destroyed by fire, caused by a negro putting on too many shavings while kindling a fire, rendering 70 inmates homeless. The Atlanta Journal leased a hotel for them until the home can be rebuilt which will be done at once, besides heading the subscription list with $100,000. The building cost about $40,000. The Atlanta Journal is ready to do its duty. This is one reason it is so popular among the people. Subscriptions are being taken up for the rebuilding of the Home in many places in the state and if any one in this section wishes to give anything let them send it in to the Nugget and we will forward it to Atlanta for them.

Work will begin on the Gainesville and Dahlonega Railway just as soon as Mr. Carlisle, the engineer, recovers sufficiently from his spell of fever to take charge of the work, which will not be but a few days. Had Gainesville's city council not extended the time for beginning the railway system in her city thirty days, the time heretofore given expiring the last day of September, it was intended to secure the services of another man and begin the work on the first of the month and carry it on until Mr. Carlisle could take hold, but being informed by his physician that he would soon be well the directors of the road decided to wait, being that the city council had agreed to extend the time. Gen. Warner has just returned from the East, and another party has got back from Athens with a deed in his pocket to Bull Shoals, which belonged to the Deering estate, on the Chestate river including one hundred acres of land, giving the railway company all the power needed. Now Dahlonega will rise from her long sleepy spell and begin the march of prosperity.

On last Monday morning the news reached Dahlonega that Dr. Wm. Bowers had shot and killed two men over in Union county named Rogers and Edmondson. Later that is was only one, but when Dr. Jones went over he found that neither were dead but were mortally wounded and from every appearance would not live long. Edmondson is a son of Joe Edmondson, and the other is John Rogers, a son of Geo. Rogers, both of Fannin county, but the shooting was in Union. The former was shot just below the breast bone, ball coming out low down in the back. The latter was shot in the back near one shoulder the ball passing through to the skin, breaking one rib. The first report was that the young men in company with another, while intoxicated, ran one Mr. Davis, an uncle of Dr. Bowers, into latter's yard with rocks. The doctor told them to drop their rocks. Painter did so but Edmondson and Rogers failed to obey the command and the doctor shot the two last named. Another report is that the young men were drunk and cursing in Doctor Bowers' yard and he shot when they refused to stop and left for other parts.

B. R. MEADERS & SONS.

Dr. Stow last Saturday reported a case of scarlet fever to the city authorities at M. V. Barker's residing in the White house, fortunately located off at a considerable distance from any other residence in the Western portion of the city. The child had been sick five days before any physician was called in and it will not be long now before it will be well, and it may be that no other children outside of this family will have it, although some of its sisters attended the public school. The council didn't seem to be in a hurry to act as the body never convened until Monday morning at 11 o'clock, and then only ordered a partial quarantine—to keep his children at home and allow the men folks to resume their daily work in the mines. It seems to be very mild as it is currently reported that one family of children in town had it and recovered without the presence of a physician before any outsiders knew it. The public school is continuing as Dr. Wheelchel, the city physician doesn't think that it is necessary to suspend it now and the teachers are going on with their work, but will stop at once whenever it is advisable. Prof. Martin, the principal, says that every precaution necessary will be taken to prevent its spreading.

Hon. W. H. McAfee met Capt. Hall in Gainesville this week to finish up the arbitration between J. B. Witt, of Dahlonega, who worked the rich Findley chute belonging to the Consolidated Co., and J. W. Adams, of Nashville, Tenn., the company's president. Some months ago at the request of Mr. Adams he was permitted to take quite a lot of this fine ore for a display to two or three of the northern cities and at an appointed time was to get it all together and put it through the Hix Process, which was then trying to be boomed. Mr. Witt was notified to go up to Fort Wayne, Ind., to see the operation. Promptly at the appointed time, surrounded by an invited newspaper man and a lot of as many capitalists as could be gathered together they commenced feeding the concern on Mr. Witt's valuable ore until about five hundred pennyweights of gold were produced, when the machinery ceased to move and the news was sent out that Mr. Hix had taken sick and would continue the progress of this test as soon as he recovered. Mr. Hix "recovered" but the test was never completed. It couldn't be for the ore was not there. It was scattered, nearly every fellow taking a piece that saw it, especially those belonging to the Consolidated Co., for it was the first gold that they had seen come from any of their mines, having taken all that had been mined for expenses and more too. Mr. Witt had Mr. Adams' receipt for the ore but it would not answer as a substitute for gold, silver or greenbacks. The exact value of this misplaced ore could not be agreed upon by Mr. Witt and Mr. Adams, hence they decided to the duty to fall upon Messrs. McAfee and Hall. Mr. Witt's side of the testimony was heard in Dahlonega a few weeks ago, and now Mr. Adams' will be listened to down at Gainesville. Since the arbitration commenced in Dahlonega by some unknown magnet power a portion of that misplaced ore has been collected by Mr. Adams ready to be turned over to Mr. Witt as soon as it is inspected by the arbitrators.

Standard Gold Mining Co. Call for Special Meeting.

DAHLONEGA, GA. Oct. 1st, 1901. For the Sake of Decency.

Mr. Embrown:

For the sake of decency, for the sake of civilization, for the sake of law and order, for the sake of God who has said thou shalt labor six days and on the seventh rest—and keep holy. Now the law of Georgia says we must keep the Sabbath. But we don't.

Several months ago the city council made it a law to open the drug stores on Sunday, strictly a violation of the state law, and it says you can stay open all the time just so you close so the people can go to dinner or church, close 10.30 a. m., open 1.30 p. m. sounds to me like a crowd of children getting together and saying when and where they will meet, to play on Sundays.

Last Sunday Matthews Drug Co. closed after the second bell had rung for church, after 11 o'clock. Dr. Jones did not close at all—I mean look up and leave.

Both these men live near their business, and in case of necessity could come to their store and get medicine—the only thing they have a right to sell on Sunday.

Last Sunday it was awful to see students "matching" for drinks or cigars—gambling in broad open day light and on Sunday. Can it be stopped? Well I think so. Little boys standing around listening to the swearing and dirty tales.

For the sake of decency let's stop it. I am a friend to both Dr. Jones and druggist Matthews but they ought to stop it. If the council who are sworn to do their duty don't stop it let the people and newspapers do it.

They all like the Nugget, especially those who have gone away from this county to other parts, T. W. Cavender, of Monroe, Oregon, sends for the Nugget this week. So does Mrs. V. A. O'Kean a daughter of George Sam who left this county many years ago. She is now in St. Louis and loves to read the Nugget she says because it tells all about her home county.

Our citizens must bear in mind that the law does not allow them to put their hogs in small pens until the first day of November.

It seems that the liquor out in the eastern portion of the county has a bigger influence over some of the people than the preachers.

Growing Pigs With Profit.

The following points in pig growing are from the experience of a man who has been successful in the work for twenty years. Some of the methods employed are according to the old-time way of working, others are modern and show that he is willing to try any feasible plan that promises success. After trying both cooked foods and foods fed in their natural state, he believes the cooked foods by far the profitable. Spring pigs pay the best, and pay better when confined. When the pigs are to be pushed, grass, peas, corn and clover are the ration, and give better results at smaller expense than anything else used. The natural tendency of swine is to deteriorate, hence, care is taken to keep up the strain to its standard by the introduction of a new boar every two years. The boar selected depends upon the points of the sows. If the latter are fine and close knit, a boar of rather loose and coarse construction is selected, and vice versa. By thus keeping the grade high and changing the boars from herd to herd, so that there is no inbreeding, stock of uniform quality is obtained that brings profitable returns at the minimum expense.

The Church For All.

The church is intended for all people. There is no limit, but no matter how great a sinner a man may be, the church is for him just as much as for a very religious person. It is not right for people to criticize others in the congregation. This is the cause of many leaving a church. We don't like to hear stories that others have circulated about us. It hurts our tender senses and breaks friendly ties. We should take sinners into the church, and with the experience we have gained bring them to the way of leading a holy life. We should welcome them to the church and invite them to partake of the waters of life freely. It was intended for them just as much as it was for you and me. So be kind to those who have not walked in the path of righteousness, and do all in your power to make them good. Criticism will not bring this good result.—Rev. W. S. Ives.

The Way to Wealth.

A Small leak will sink a great ship.
Fools make feasts, and wise men eat them.
Buy what thou has no need of, and ere long thou shalt sell thy necessities.
Pride is as loud a beggar as Want, and a great deal more saucy.
It is easier to suppress the first desire than to satisfy all that follow it.
Creditors have better memories than debtors; creditors are a superstitious sect, great observers of set days and times.
If you would know the value of money, go and try to borrow some; for he that goes a-borrowing goes a-sorrowing.—Benjamin Franklin, in poor Richard's Almanac.

Leave the Mysterious Alone.

If life is short then I think it will be wiser on my part to leave mysterious alone. I think so. Why? Because life is short. We cannot do everything. We had better, therefore, make a selection and attend to those things we can get hold of and work to the soul's best advantage.—Rev. Joseph Parker, D. D., City Temple, London.

Six Husbands in Six Years.

The Spanish journals relate the perhaps unparalleled matrimonial experiences of a young Spanish woman named Isabella Corporal, who, in six years, has lost by death six husbands and now awaits in modest patience her wedding day with a seventh, says the Baltimore Sun. In 1894 Senorita Isabel, then a young girl of 21, migrated to New Orleans and soon married a theatrical manager named Freeman, who died in a few months from yellow fever during a starring tour. In order the better to conduct the company his widow, after a few weeks, married one of the actors, a Spaniard named Hany, who was fatally stabbed on their wedding night while trying to meditate in a brawl in the boarding house. Three weeks later another of the actors led her blushing to the altar. He was a Mexican named Lopez, with whom the offended laws of his country had a crow to pluck. Arrested, he sought escape by leaping from a train, was killed, and for the third time in twelve months poor Isabel became a widow. Very soon, however, a fourth husband came along. He was an American, named Knight, but the Cuban war consigned him to an untimely grave and Isabel to the arms of a fifth husband in a person of a South Carolina lumber merchant, who was killed among his own timber. About the sixth husband there are not many details, but he met his end untimely, like his predecessors—in a steamboat accident. Standing, like Niobe, "all tears," Isabel is for the moment, a widow for the sixth time. But she is young, possesses a small dowry, and a business man of Charleston, greatly daring, has implored her to name the seventh wedding day.

Hints for the Housewife.

Empty mustard glasses do for jelly.
For soiled spot in wall paper, try rubbing with dry cornmeal or stale bread.
Bread and butter plates are employed at every meal where butter is served.
The newest cushion covers for indoor use come in coppery and mahogany shades.
Rice is declared by some authorities to be the most easily digested of all vegetable foods.
Ceilings that have been smoked with kerosene lamp should be washed off with soda water.
A small oblong platter is called a sandwich tray. It is a convenient size and shape for sandwiches.
An experimenting housewife has discovered that grape juice imparts a delicious flavor to the ice cream.
It is said that maritatic acid should never be placed near tin, even when it is tightly corked, because it will ruin them.
To remove iron stains from bath room bowls rub a little maritatic acid on the stain and then rinse quickly with ammonia water.
Crude petroleum well rubbed in, is as simple and good a polisher as one can find for floors which have been oiled, varnished or painted.

What Georgia needs is tax reform, not in name, but in actual fact, and if she doesn't soon get it taxes will eat up the tax payers, says the Bainbridge Democrat. There is a great deal of truth in this, and the next legislature should be selected with an eye to this matter.

For sprains, swellings and lameness there is nothing so good as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by The Matthew's drug store.

Eat More Fruit.

If people ate more fruit they would take less medicine and have much better health. There is an old saying that fruit is gold in the morning and lead at night. As a matter of fact, it may be gold at both times, but then it should be eaten on an empty stomach and not as a desert, when the appetite is satisfied and digestion is already sufficiently taxed. Fruit taken in the morning before the fast of the night has been broken, is very refreshing, and it serves as a stimulus to the digestive organs. A ripe apple or an orange may be taken at this time with good effect. Fruit to be valuable as an article of diet, should be ripe, sound and in every way of good quality, and if possible it should be eaten raw. Instead of eating a plate of ham or bacon and eggs for breakfast most people would do far better if they took some grapes, pears or apples—fresh fruit as long as it is to be had and after that they can fall back on stewed prunes, figs, etc. If only fruit of some sort formed an important item in their breakfast, women would generally feel brighter and stronger, and would have far better complexions than is the rule at present.—Ex.

State Will be Short $135,000.

Governor Candler is wrestling with a deficiency in the state treasury which there seems to be no way of providing for unless the legislature reduces the appropriations for the coming year.

The figures show that with the taxes to be collected the expenses of the state will be such that there will be a deficiency of $56,888. This will exist without including the pensions for the indigent widows, the new class of pensioners created at the last session of the general assembly. It was provided at that time that these should be paid out of any funds in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

It will require $78,000 to pay these widows next year, there being about 1,300 of them. If these are paid the deficiency in the treasury will be increased by that amount, making a total of nearly $135,000.

This deficiency, it appears, will exist in spite of the fact that the full tax rate allowed by law, $5.44 on the $1,000, was levied this year. This grows out of the fact that the legislature made unusually large appropriations last year, and heavier inroads than usual have been made on the treasury. In some respects the state is just a year behind in its bookkeeping, as part of the taxes to be collected next month will be used to pay expenses incurred during the fiscal year that has just closed.

The situation is one which the legislature will have to meet when it convenes. There is no doubt that Governor Candler will say something about the matter in his message, but what he will recommend is not known at the present time. The governor was not inclined to talk about the matter yesterday.

There are two things that the legislature can do. One is to reduce the appropriations and the other is to increase the tax rate. It is said that it will, in all probability, require a two-thirds vote of the general assembly to adopt the latter plan, and it is not thought it will be tried.—Constitution.

The trouble with the Chinese is that they are too ignorant to be converted and too ignorant enough to be swindled.—Monroe Advertiser.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, OCT. 11, 1901.

The Georgia legislature convenes on the 23rd inst.

The present price of meat and corn should induce more people to go to raising hog and hominy.

You can kill turkeys and partridges in Georgia from the 1st of November until the 15th of March.

B. M. Higgins, a young lawyer, was found dead in his bed at the Commercial Hotel in Athens last Saturday morning.

Near Caney Springs, Tenn., Saturday night whitechoppers fired into a body of negroes, wounding fifteen, four of them badly.

Admiral Schley has retired from the navy last Wednesday by age limit. Several promotions will result from this retirement.

It has been calculated by the department of agriculture that only 1,250,000 bales of cotton will be made in Georgia this year, unfavorable season and disease caused the decrease.

Mr. Bryan has tendered his services to the Ohio democratic campaign committee, signifying his willingness to go to that state and assist the party in securing the election of the democratic ticket.

The board of commissioners of White county has refused to pay the expenses of holding the inquest held over the late Mr. Black, who was drowned in that county until further counsel is obtained.

Saturday night a train on the old Augusta Southern road dashed into a river near Keysville where a bridge had been burnt during the night, killing engineer J. W. Berry and injuring all the train crew and many of its passengers.

A dispatch from Simla to the London Times says the plague returns for the last week show 6,385 deaths, against 4,822 in the preceding week, and 1,136 in the corresponding week last year. Most of the deaths were in Bombay presidency.

John P. Allen has sold the Glasscock Banner to Messrs. W. R. and J. L. Snider, two blind young men who have two blind brothers and a widowed mother and two sisters dependent upon them for support. Surely no subscriber will try to beat these unfortunate people out of their just money.

The soldiers home, recently destroyed by fire in Atlanta, will not be started before six weeks, says the Atlanta Journal. An effort is being made to get up enough money by subscription to rebuild it, but we guess the legislature will be called upon at its next session to force the tax payers of Georgia to do the work. This is going to cause a kick because there are but few counties represented in the home, being only 70 inmates all told, and when an effort is made to force the state to build a $40,000 house besides other expenses for this small number of inmates the people are going to kick hard.

The records of the penitentiary show that for a year or more, and particularly of recent months a large majority of the able-bodied convicts turned out by the courts are sentenced to servitude in the county chaingangs, while the lame, the halt and the blind are being saddled upon the state to be disposed of in the same way. As the state's contract with the people who hire the labor of the felony convicts calls for able-bodied men they will take no other class of convicts. In consequence of this the state's share of the out put of the court has to go to the prison farm, to be taken care of as pensioners. The fact that there is a strong demand for misdemeanor convicts at prices ranging from $14 to $17 per month according to the length of the sentence.

Mining Notes

The steam whistles at the mining boats in the Chastatee river heard every day notify us that the bed of this stream is being steadily robbed of its precious metal.

Mr. Howe, engaged in mining over in the edge of Hall, was in Dahlonega Monday who reports his operations as running successfully. Mill moving right a long on time.

A tramway is being built from the Dahlonega shaft to transport the ore being taken out of it to the mill. The little mill known as the Singleton is steadily running with plates looking well.

One of the members of the Consolidated Co. informs us that the claim filed by the First National Bank of Gainesville, against the company for a thousand dollars, has been settled off.

Work is still progressing as usual down at the Hand both in the shaft and tunnel, breaking ore in either place. The vein in the tunnel is large and very good but the vein in the shaft is more scattering and does not look so well, though it shows some sulphurets.

If all the stockholders of the Consolidated mines were like Mr. Ikes, of Ohio, who has been superintending them for awhile it would be much better for our native miners. He says that those acquainted with the work here and have a knowledge of how to mine to the best advantage ought to have received the big wages paid to others.

The interesting article of H. V. Maxwell in the Engineering and Mining Journal of New York, and Prof. Colvins in the Scientific American, published in the same city, descriptive of the electrical working of the mines of Crown Mountain are both causing every one feeling any interest in this industry to turn their attention towards Dahlonega.

The mining operations on lot 810 by J. M. Hutchins still continues with splendid results. A chute has been struck recently almost as good as that of the Findley and may be equal to it when followed deeper. It is of a soft formation and very easy to work. One small panful of it the other day produced five pennyweights. When the Findley chute was first struck it was soft but grew harder and richer as it was followed. This one may be the same way.

W. T. Bryson and Bud Odom, two of Lumpkin county's most successful mining prospectors, recently secured a lease on one of the Consolidated Co's lots down about the Barlow and went to work and we expect to hear of something being struck every day as rich as the Findley chute, for Mr. Bryson has often told us that he could find it down there. We learned this week that they had found some rock showing sheets of gold which is a good indication that Mr. Bryson knows what he is talking about.

Prof. Boyd, the Englishman who is interested in the development work being done out on the Cavender's Creek property, was in the city awhile last Monday and while here we had the pleasure of meeting the gentleman. He informed us that he has a splendidly equipped assay office and is engaged in making chlorination, cyanide and other kinds of tests right on the ground without having to go to the expense of sending the ore to New York or any other cities. As everybody here knows this is splendid mining property, which the professor has found out himself some time ago.

Only a partial clean up was made at Crown Mountain last week. A number of the stockholders were present and each one was perfectly satisfied with the result. A portion of each flume line was cleaned up so they could all see and have some idea of the amount of gold that is caught in them out of the soft and very rich sparolite ore being conveyed to the Huntington mills by water, and the quantity of that kind of metal so much sought for was an interesting sight.

to behold. Two more Huntington mills have just been received which are being put in position—being four of this kind besides a 50 stamp mill it requires to crush and grind the ore being taken from the base of this rich mountain. The results are very gratifying and much larger returns are being made than were expected as but little gold was looked for until the big Crown Mountain proper, the backbone of the gold belt, was penetrated.

Dahlonega Lyceum Course.

Enough subscribers for course tickets have been secured to guarantee a lyceum course for Dahlonega this winter. The course will include eight splendid attractions; two fine musical entertainments, one by the Swiss Bell Ringers and Ascotown Trio, and one by the de Barne Gill—Johnstone Musical and Dramatical Company; Ralph Bingham in an evening of Mirth and Song; Edwin L. Barker in one of his monologues plays; Fred Emerson Brooks, the California poet, will give an evening of reading from his new poems; Judge Earnest Howard Crosby will lecture on Lollstoy. Dr. Benj. F. Trueblood will lecture, and also Hon. G. A. Gerhart. Dr. Trueblood is known here, and Mr. Gerhart's lecture in Atlanta last Monday night on "The Coming Man" was declared by the Constitution to have been one of the strongest lectures ever heard in Atlanta. He will open the course in Dahlonega next Monday night, Oct. 14th, and something fine may be expected.

Course tickets got to admit two persons to all the entertainments, cost $4.00. Some few half tickets have also been sold at $2.00 good to admit one person.

Single admission to each of the entertainments will be 50 cents, so there is economy in getting a course ticket.

In case enough others will take course tickets to justify, a ninth attraction will be added to the course, at no extra cost to the course ticket holders.

Col. Price is president of the lyceum course and Prof. Colvin manager. If you wish a course ticket, see Prof. Colvin before next Monday evening.

The Inter-State Fair opened in Atlanta last Wednesday.

The board of health of Gainesville gave notice last week that three cases of small pox had developed in that city—one in the jail and two in the country, and the patience have been sent to the pest house.

Mrs. A. J. Witner, a widow residing at Dayton, O., has been arrested who is suspected of killing fourteen persons. The list including four husbands, five children, one sister and four members of different families in which she was employed as house keeper.

OLD IDEAS.

Every day strengthens the belief of eminent physicians that impure blood is the cause of the majority of our diseases. Twenty-five years ago this theory was used as a basis for the formula of Brown's Kidney Pills. The many remarkable cures effected by this famous old household remedy are sufficient to prove that the theory is correct. Brown's Kidney Pills is sold by all druggists.

Children's Fertilizer.

That's a good name for Scott's Emulsion. Children are like young plants. Some will grow in ordinary soil. Others need fertilizers.

The nature of some children prevents them from thriving on ordinary food. Such children grow right if treated right.

All they need is a little fertilizer—a little extra richness. Scott's Emulsion is the right treatment.

Fertilizers make things grow. That's just what Scott's Emulsion does. It makes children grow in flesh, grow in strength, grow rich blood, grow in mind, grow happy. That's what we make it for.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, OCTOBER 11, 1901.

Is your house insured? If not? why not?

Come to Dahlonega and watch the place grow.

Dahlonega is now going to get on a boom right.

Porter Springs closes on the 15th inst. for the season.

Six pigs one month old for sale by B. R. Meaders & Sons.

Mr. Ikea who has been here for some time left for the north last week.

Get your saw mills in shape for there is going to be a big demand for lumber.

A light frost was seen at many places in this county last Friday morning.

The new chestnut crop is finding its way to Dahlonega. The crop is said to be short this year.

J. R. Thomas, of Birmingham, Ala., was up a day or two last week to see the old folks at home.

Quite a number of northern capitalists have been here since our last issue looking at the mines.

The U. S. Court is in session in Atlanta and some of the boys are having hard trials, troubles and tribulations.

Prof. Stewart represents the strongest companies in America, so you will be sure to get what is due if a fire comes.

If there is any one away from this place who wish to keep posted about Dahlonega let them send us a dollar for the Nugget.

Gen. Warner has moved into Park Street Inn, recently occupied by Capt. Allen. Judge Murray also occupies a part of the building.

Mr. Breyman left for Toledo, O., last week to be present at a special meeting of the Standard Co. which met in that city last Wednesday.

One of the large pillars over on the Chestate river cracked so that it had to be torn down and rebuilt before the bridge contractors could go on with their work, causing a delay.

Mrs. Strickland visited Atlanta last week and has returned with the nicest line of millinery goods ever brought to Dahlonega. Call and see them when in need of any thing in this line.

Postmaster Tate is going to remodel the post office so as to make it more convenient for its patrons; division will be made so the ladies can get their mail at one place and the men at another.

The shaft in the street fronting Prof. Gaillard's, which was sunk for mining purposes, caved in last week to a depth of about thirty feet which will take a considerable amount of work to fill it up.

Mr. Souther, who was reported to be killed by lightning during the summer down in Forsyth county, was up last week making arrangements to rent a house. He has bought a new lot of machinery for his saw mill and is coming up to do business right.

A bill will be introduced at the next session of the Georgia legislature giving the newspapers having the largest bona fide circulation the legal advertising. If this is done those who work hard to make their paper a good one will be rewarded for their efforts, which is nothing but justice.

The Nugget is even read with much interest in North Carolina. Ed. Mincey, of Peachtree, N. C., in renewing his subscription last week says: "Allow me to congratulate you on your paper. I delight in reading the Nugget. First because it is printed in the county of my nativity; second because it gives the news without partiality—it hits the line and lets the chips fall where they may."

Some very valuable property in town changed hands last Saturday.

Come to Dahlonega and grow up with the place, for it is going to get on a permanent boom now.

W. C. Moore will move into the Charters house recently purchased by his brother, J. F. Moore.

Mrs. Hubbard, who has been running Hall's Villa will go home on a visit for a short time about the 15th.

Law day at Davis' law ground has been changed from the first Saturday in each month to the first Friday. Those having business in this court will govern themselves accordingly.

The Superior Court of Lumpkin county convenes Monday week with a good deal of business to transact, being more than fifty criminal cases, defendants having already made bond.

Camp meeting at Yellow Creek was not largely attended as usual. But few tent holders were on hand. Things were not as lively as usual. The interest in camp meeting is gradually decreasing.

H. D. Gurley, Jr., who has been clerking in a mercantile establishment in Gadsden, Ala., has come back to Georgia and accepted a professorship of Military Science Greek at the college at Outhbert.

Bud McWhorter, who has been in the mercantile business in Dahlonega for near 16 years, has quit the business, leased the Consolidated Company's saw mill and gone to getting out lumber preparatory for the rush.

Hon. G. D. Bruce, J. F. Moore, J. H. Moore, M. J. Williams, G. H. McGuire and Dr. Wheeler have formed a company and optioned for thirty days from Col. Price what is known as the Mahew lot which will be layed off into town lots and offered for sale at very reasonable figures.

Some times in Dahlonega an alarm of a fire is given by the discharge of a pistol. Three shots at 1:15 Sunday morning somewhere in the city aroused us from our slumbers, but it was found that some fellows stomach was burning with blockade liquor in stead of any building being on fire.

R. C. Thomson will take charge of Hall's Villa on the 15th who will continue to run it in first class style. Mr. Thomson has permanently located in Dahlonega and we wish for him success in any thing he undertakes. He is a wide awake, public spirited gentleman and this is the kind of people it takes to make a place prosperous.

The New Union Association closed at this place last Saturday afternoon to meet again at Salem church next year in October. Rev. Mr. Duesee to preach the introductory sermon. The session just closed was not very largely attended but it seemed to be one of much interest to those who did. Rev. James Higgins acted as moderator.

It takes money to make property valuable. A few years ago the lot where R. C. Thomson built a six thousand dollar dwelling, was sold by Col. Baker for $100. And the piece of land on which stands the large elegant four or five thousand dollar hotel belonging to the Consolidated Co. was many years ago sold by Col. R. H. Moore, now deceased, to a man for a pair of boots.

Some time ago Jim Lee, charged with misdemeanor, made bond for his appearance at the next term of Lumpkin Superior Court. Jim's conduct getting a little afraid that he would not be on hand, decided to give him up and made arrangements for sheriff Davis to catch him the other night. When the officer went to Jim's place of abode, he found that he was out possum hunting. The defendant was soon located but when he saw the sheriff he threw down his possums and ran off like a young mule and has not been seen since.

Come to the Nugget office for your notes and all kinds of blanks.

Mr. Blackwell, the new pastor of the Presbyterian church at this place will deliver his first sermon here next Sunday. Everybody invited.

At the meeting of the city council Monday night it was ordered that if a bus is issued right away against all parties who had not paid their taxes.

Attorney Benj. Parks, of the firm of Parks & Gaillard of Gainesville, was up first of the week shaking hands with his many warm friends here.

At last accounts the two men shot by Dr. Bowers in Union county last week were still alive but in a critical condition. The Doctor has returned home and so far has not been molested.

Had some old woman see that married woman and a certain fellow's actions in Dahlonega last Monday night it would have created a sensation, but as it is we will mark it down in our book under the head of "making love under some disadvantages."

We are in receipt of a complimentary ticket for the season to the Southern-State Fair which opened in Atlanta last Wednesday, and hope to be able to spend a day or so there, feeling confident that it will be a grand success for Atlanta never fails in any undertaking she goes into.

Next Sunday the whole generation of the colored Anderson race will meet at the colored camp ground, three miles from the city, and partake of a dinner which will be prepared for this occasion. There are 52 of them living and all who wish to see this many kin folks eat a big dinner together are invited to go out.

Lieut. F. L. S. Price, of the U. S. Army, who has been in the Philippine Islands for some time, came home on a short furlough last Monday night. He is one of the old Dahlonega cadets and all school boys and every body else here were glad to meet him and learn that he had never been marked by a bullet while engaged with the enemy in this foreign country.

The Gainesville and Dahlonega Electric Railway Co. commenced last Monday in developing the water power of Bull Shoals on the Chestate river. And as soon as Mr. Carlisle recovers work will begin in the development of Dunlap Shoals near Gainesville. D. T. Harris is in charge of the former development work. This information comes direct from Judge Murray, president of the company.

It has been suggested by a member of the church and also the Temperance Union that the meeting of the latter should be changed to some other time besides Sunday night so as not to conflict with the preaching of two sermons each month as it now does. Let those who are interested in both church and temperance give this matter a second thought and see if this plan suggested wouldn't be a good one.

Daniel Grice, of Forsyth county, one of our old schoolmates, was up to see his relatives in this county first of the week. The writer and Mr. Grice attended school together over a quarter of a century ago when school boys knew no such things as knee pants, derby hats and striped hose, but went hatless, coatless, with their pants held up by home made knit suspenders and straw hats roughly made either by their mothers or sisters.

F. L. Reese has a sample of a cotton stalk at his store grown on the Reese farm in this county by Thomas Bowers measuring four and a half inches round next to the roots and seven feet and eight inches high with 105 bolls on it. It was grown on very rich ground and there are others like it left. This proves that it pays best to cultivate less land and fertilize it well than to plant so much that you can not properly fertilize and work it.

If your children need a good education come to Dahlonega where there is a splendid school and college free to all.

James Phillip's little boy got his hand hurt by the machinery at the Crown Mountain mill last Wednesday while oiling it. It broke the little finger of his left hand and otherwise injured it.

Those having land for sale should not hold it too high. Such as this is just what kills a town. Look how Col. Price has built up his part of the city by selling lots to purchasers at reasonable figures.

D. T. Harris, of Murrayville, Ga., was in the city awhile last Saturday on business, to renew his subscription to the Nugget and to make arrangements to commence work on the Electric Railway dam on the Chestate river last Monday.

Preachers have a hard time like printers. We noticed the Methodist minister was around the other day praying for some of the members of his church who had been attending dances and taking an active part in the same, endeavoring to have them restored to full fellowship once more.

J. T. Miller, of Auraria, came up last Saturday to close a trade for some city property in Dahlonega but he was twelve hours too late. The other fellow got it. Hope that he will yet find a place to suit him so that he will become a permanent citizen of our beautiful, thriving mountain city.

L. K. Donavin and lady, who have been spending a month in Dahlonega, together with their little boy left Monday for their home in Columbus, O. Mrs. Donavin was very much delighted with our healthy climate, both her and the little boy having gained in health and strength considerably during their stay here.

Bob Beck, who recently joined the church in Hall county has announced that he will preach at the Dahlonega camp ground on the 4th Sunday. Bob says, so we understand, that the Lord has called him to preach. If this be true the Lord must undoubtedly be getting short of preachers. We don't know what his subject will be but suppose it will be "I am the light."

Although Bob has a living wife residing in Dahlonega he was over at Yellow Creek last Sunday escorting some young lady about, is why we make these "few scattering remarks."

The proposed stock law in Mill Creek district is creating much interest. Twenty-one citizens have asked the ordinary by petition to order an election, and another position of 20 names are asking him not to do so and will make a strong fight against the stock law at the proper time. It is claimed that there are not 15 free holders out of the 21 asking for the election. If this is true and it is shown to be so the whole thing will go by the board for a while at least. It is not our fight. We are not in it. But guess we can stand off and watch others do the fighting and when the battle is over come in on the pension list as is the custom in other wars.

Capt. C. C. Cusick, who has charge of the military department of the N. G. A. College informs us that Mrs. Cusick, who has recently arrived, is highly pleased with Dahlonega. A visit was made to Porter the other day and both were perfectly delighted with this most favorite summer resort. Mr. Cusick informs us that his son A. R. Cusick, company 44th U. S. Volunteers, will be here from the Philippine Islands in a short while with the expectation of remaining some time in our prosperous mountain city. Young Mr. Cusick has been engaged in some hard fought battles since leaving the United States. In one battle he became exhausted and lay on the battle field for two hours, after which time he recovered and joined the fire until it was ended. Such brave men as this are always welcomed in any community.

They had fine weather to commence on the railroad and we hope it will continue so, for we are all anxious to see its completion.

Just after services closed at the Methodist church last Sunday night some one fired five shots in succession. If the party is brought before Judge Estes he will never want to see another pistol.

Mr. Hix, who is engaged in mining for asbestos up in White county was in the city a short while first of the week in company with Mr. Oliver of the Bell Telephone Co., located at Gainesville.

Our office was honored by a visit last Monday afternoon from Gen. P. W. Hardin, of Louisville, Ky. This gentleman is interested in the Crown Mountain gold mine and states that he feels confident that it will be a success.

Notice and renew when your subscription to the Nugget is out, if you wish to continue reading it, before or about the time it expires. Otherwise your name will be dropped when you are not thinking about it, besides it saves us trouble.

If any one else wishes to contribute anything for the McKinley monument to be built in Atlanta let them send it in at once as we expect to forward what little money has been given here for that purpose next week to the committee in Atlanta.

Although there are a number of criminal cases on the Superior Court docket not near all will be tried at the coming term of court on account of the U. S. Court being in session at the same time and witnesses having business down there.

A warrant was sworn out the other day and put into the hands of sheriff Davis for Mrs. Low Christy who is charged with assault and battery on the person of Martha Beasley. It is said that Mrs. Christy got the best of the fight and now the matter goes before the court.

The appearance of frost and cold weather has caused the sport of bathing at Cane Creek falls to cease for the season. These falls are very beautiful, none prettier in the county, and we predict that a hotel will be built out there some day making the place one of the most favorite resorts in North Georgia.

L. S. Prater, of Dahlonega, is showing by his liberality that he is a great friend to railroads. He owns a forty acre lot down at what has been formerly known as Price station in Hall county and proposes if the Electric Railway Co. will make a depot at this point to give half of it if it is necessary and desired by the company.

Rev. B. J. Blackwell and lady, of Newberry, S. C., arrived in Dahlonega last Monday afternoon. Mr. Blackwell has recently been appointed to take charge of the Presbyterian church at this place and will locate here as soon as he can either buy or rent a suitable residence. It is with pleasure we note his presence among us for ministers are a great benefit to any community.

Col. King, one of the leading lawyers of Atlanta, spent about fifteen minutes in Dahlonega last Sunday. He came in a hurry and departed the same way and no one that we know of found out his business. He was driven up to Hall's Villa where he got out and went in a few minutes. Then he went to the Dahlonega Hotel and remained just about as long and departed in the same direction that he came.

Hon. W. H. McAffe, one of the arbitrators in the Witt and Adams gold case returned from Gainesville last Monday where he had been to meet Capt. F. W. Hall, of Ingleside, Ga., the other arbitrator, to investigate Mr. Adams' side of the question, but up to this time no decision has been made. A lot of ore returned to the arbitrators has been sent to the mint to be tested, after which they hope to be able to adjust the matter satisfactorily.

Fine new home made syrup at J. H. McKee's.

See sheriff's sale and other legal notices elsewhere.

More real estate is changing hands in this county to-day. Let our roll.

If you have any property for sale let it be known through the columns of the Nugget.

Many of our farmers have been "saying hay while the sun shined" during the past few days.

The little twelve-year-old girl of Joseph Avery died of scarlet fever a few miles above Dahlonega last Tuesday.

Just before going to press we learn that one more case of scarlet fever has developed at Mr. Barkers and the first has relapsed, being the only two cases in town.

Hon. G. G. Gehart, of Buffalo, N. Y., will open the Dahlonega Lyceum Course next Monday evening with his great lecture, "The Coming Man." You cannot afford to miss hearing him.

Lewis Frewitt waived examination and made bond for his appearance at Lumpkin Superior Court this week charged with carrying concealed weapons. Warrant sworn out by J. W. Walker.

The contract of carrying the Dahlonega and Ellijay mail seems to be a hard one as each carrier soon gets enough of it. The original contractor lives in Virginia, who has had a man here this week trying to get it out of someone else but so far has failed.

It's right funny. Last Monday two parties went to undertake Stow and requested that he go over to Albert Coffee's and propose the body of a negro woman who had died over there for her grave. Mr. Stow went over but found the sick woman alive not ready to be placed away for awhile.

We understand that A. S. Wheeler is preparing to finish a dam down on the Chestate river just a half mile below where the railroad dam is being started. Mr. Wheeler's dam will not be completed as we learn that the railway company purchased one half the river bed a considerable distance below its dam where Mr. Wheeler contemplates building his so as to prevent any trouble of this kind.

F. L. LaPrade, who used to go to college here many years ago while Col. Lewis was its president, visited the city for the first time in many years. Mr. LaPrade used to cut and haul wood at odd times while not attending college so as to make both ends meet. Now he resides at Winslow, Arizona, owns a large cattle ranch and is the second wealthiest tax payer in his township. It always pleases us to hear of any of the old college boys doing well.

The city council met Monday evening but transacted but little business of interest to the public, except an ordinance was passed compelling persons when they put their hogs in close pens next month to have the floor at least eighteen inches from the ground. The "dog howling" ordinance heretofore introduced was layed on the table for the present, giving each and every dog a chance to howl and bark in Dahlonega until they are prohibited by law.

Last Monday our city was made bright and happy by the appearance of some twenty-five or thirty Seminary girls from Gainesville in company with Prof. Wanhouse. They arrived between two and three o'clock and spent the rest of the afternoon in looking at the works of the Crown Mountain Gold Mine. Upon their return to the city they stopped at Hall's Villa. By this time the news had spread over the city and the court house was perfectly crowded with young men and when these beautiful young ladies appeared it charmed the boys so that they sat perfectly speechless for sometime. Come again. The gates of Dahlonega are always open to such pretty visitors.

A Corn Mill Needed in Dahlonega.

Ed. NUGGET:—

I say this because we have been presented with musty meal for bread for weeks past that is not healthy for man and perhaps not for beast. We do not know who is to blame, the mills that grind the corn or those who offer to sell the unhealthy corn as meal. At any rate we think a good corn mill might be erected at or near Dahlonega with good advantage and hope of profit to the owner, and who could furnish good and healthy corn meal to the people at all times. Now at this time when the laboring man totes home a few pounds of meal in the evening and the good wife makes the corn bread for supper and the family meet around the table and the bread is broken and the musty odor is inhaled, and made sick and refuse to eat it and wait till morning for a biscuit.

The condition now exists in regard to unhealthy meal called up to my mind quite a calamity in reference to bread that occurred when I was a boy between the years of 1892 and 1896. A great wind storm occurred when the corn was in roasting ears. All along the southern slope of the Blue Ridge in South Carolina and perhaps other sections of the country in S. C. the corn was left for the people on the north side of the Blue Ridge in Georgia and western North Carolina. The crops were a little later and the destruction was not so great, and also in that section there were fine crops of rye and the people did not suffer so much. However early in the summer I knew corn to be sold at over two dollars a bushel and made musty meal at that. In July rye bread came in and the people did not suffer. During the winter and spring a great number of people came over from Pickens and other parts of South Carolina to Tennessee Valley to buy corn. A number of families who did not have money to buy bread moved over and remained and worked for their bread where they could find it. That was a time of great destruction which I have not yet forgotten; but surely we are not now destitute of good sound corn. If so we should have good healthy bread.

N. F. HOWARD.

According to Mrs. Worthington White, formerly a missionary in China, "peanuts and Standard Oil had more to do with the Boxer movement than the missionaries." She explains that for thousands of years the Chinese had planted peanuts and extracted the oil which was their only article for artificial light. Then the Standard Oil Company entered China and undersold the natives with kerosene oil, and the peanut oil industry was ruined. That deprived a large number of farmers of their principal means of a livelihood. Then followed railroads, throwing thousands of coolies out of employment. The natives became frightened, and under the leadership of the Dowager Empress started the movement to drive the foreigners out of the country.

A Seattle despatch says that of the 500 latest arrivals from the Klondike gold fields not one brought back as much money as he took out with him. However, it will all come back ultimately. Nobody is going to make a permanent residence in the Klondike. Everyone who goes there expects to return to the states as soon as a fortune has been cleaned up.—Marion Journal.

What He Has Learned.

To-day, July 6, 1901, the editor of this paper is fifty years of age. One half century seems a good long time, and it does seem that a man of ordinarily good sense would learn something in that space of time. We have been, since fifteen years of age, a butcher, farmer, hotel keeper, patent right man, loafer and newspaper man. We have made temperance speeches and drink a good deal of mean whiskey. We have led prayer and class meetings, exhorted and called sinners to repentance. We have made prohibition speeches and edited a prohibition paper. We ran for secretary of state on the prohibition ticket in 1892, and have thanked the Lord that we did not get votes enough to elect us. We have gone to the whole gamut of sport and have sowed at least a bushel and a peck more wild oats than should have fallen to our portion. We have seen lots of so called fun, but a thundering sight more trouble. We have found that all is not gold that glitters, nor is every man your friend who pats you on the back and tells you to "give 'em thunder" when you attack some prevailing vice or sin. We have also found, in our newspaper career, that when attacking popular vices you had just as well make up your mind to go it alone, for the very element of society from whom you would expect at least moral support, will say you are a fool or a crank, and leave you with the sack to hold. In the fifty years we have lived, and especially the thirteen and a half years we have been in the newspaper business, we have found that the good old idea that "honesty is the best policy" is a fallacy and a humbug when brought in contact with modern methods of doing business. We have observed the fact that no matter how much a man may act the rascal so long as he has plenty of money that simple fact alone covers multitude of sins.—Princeton (Ill.) News.

Grady on Liquor.

To-night it enters a humble home, strikes the roses from a woman's cheeks, and to-morrow it challenges the republic in the halls of congress. To-day it strikes a crust from the lips of a starving child and to-morrow levies tribute from the government itself. There is no cottage in this city humble enough to escape it, no place strong enough to shut it out. It defies the law when it cannot coerce suffrage. It is flexible to cajole, but merciless in victory. It is the moral enemy of peace and order, despoiler of men and terror of women, the demon that has dug more graves and sent more souls unprepared to judgment than all the pestilences that have wasted lives since God sent the plagues to Egypt, and all wars since Joshua stood before Jericho. It comes to ruin and yet is shall profit mainly by the ruin of your sons and mine. It comes to mislead human souls and crush human hearts under its rubbing wheels. It comes to bring gray-haired mothers down to shame. It comes to change a wife's love into despair and her pride into shame. It comes to still the laughter on the lips of little children. It comes to stifle all the music of home, fill it with silence and desolation. It comes to ruin your boy and mine, to wreck your home, and it knows it must measure its prosperity by the swiftness and certainty with which it wrecks this old world.

Was Full of Fun.

A clerical friend of mine told me a capital story of a Yale man who was the stroke out of his crew and the chief athlete on the football field.

He entered the ministry and spent years in missionary labor in the far west. Walking one day through a frontier town a cowboy stepped up to him and said:

"Parson you don't have enough fun. Take a drink."

The minister declined.

"Well," he said, "parson you must have some fun. Here's a fare layout. Take a hand in the game."

The minister declined.

"Parson," said the cowboy, "you will die if you don't have some fun."

And he knocked the parson's hat off his head and hit him a whack on the ear.

The old athletic spirit rose; the science that had been learned in the college gymnasium and forgotten for a quarter of a century was aroused, a blow landed on the jaw of cowboy sent him sprawling in the street.

The parson walked over to him as if he had been a door rug, picked him up and dusted the side of the house with him and then noped up the sidewalk with his form.

As the ambulance was carrying the cowboy off he raised his head feebly and said:

"Parson, what did you feed me for? You are chock full of fun!"

Girls and Sofa Pillows.

At a recent social gathering in Forsyth some one sprung the question, "How does a sofa pillow differ from a girl?" There were as many different answers as persons present.

A bright brunette said that "the pillow was a soft thing while the girl was not."

Another young man's experience said that the pillow could be stuffed while the girl could not.

Another said that a girl looked pretty in a shirt waist, but a sofa pillow did not.

The idea of one young man was that you could sit on a sofa pillow while a girl could sit down on you. He did not explain this remark.

A blonde beauty said that she could see no difference, both the girl and pillow were pretty and useful and looked best in the parlor.

A cynical old bachelor said that one was stuffed while the other was padded.

But the young man who sprung the question on the crowd declared that all these answers were wrong the real difference being that you could hold a sofa pillow on your lap but not a girl.

Let Him Alone.

When you ask a man to subscribe for your paper and he says, "Oh, I never read much, and besides, the times are too plagued hard," for God's sake apologize and leave him. Life is too short to teach a back to sing soprano. All gentlemen nowadays read newspapers, and lots of them. Show us a man who lives for years in a town or community and never subscribes for the papers published there and we will show you a man whose head is shaped like a piece of pie, with the point up, and whose ignorance is only exceeded by his gigantic tail.—Exchange.

THE NUGGET.

DALYONEGA, OCTOBER 18, 1901.

R. C. Thomson took charge of Hall's Villa this week.

Mrs. Elliott, of Murphy, N. C., a sister of Mrs. J. W. Williams, of Dahlonga, is here on a week or ten days visit.

At the finishing up of the Quarterly meeting here Wednesday the pastor was paid for his years services in full.

Since they have commenced work on the power plant on the Chestee river for the electric railway it has put new life in the people of Dahlonga.

The hotel at Porter Springs closed last Tuesday for the season, causing everything to present a dull appearance up at this famous watering place now.

Mr. Keith and Constable Coffey went down last week to take in the fair at Atlanta. The former has returned who states, like others, that it is not as good as was expected.

There are no new cases of scarlet fever in Dahlonga and are not likely to be as the city council is using extra precaution to prevent any more cases than the two heretofore reported.

Nice Irish potatoes are selling at 75 cents per bushel here and 60 cents per peck in Atlanta causing our farmers who have a good supply to feel proud that they are tillers of the soil.

The Superior Court of Lumpkin county convenes next Monday. The finance committee commenced its work last Monday, which is finished and ready to be submitted to the grand jury.

Capt. W. J. Worley went down to Ingleside, Ga., to see Capt. F. W. Hall on some special business, but to his surprise found him almost at the point of death with fever, being so low that Mr. Worley was not admitted to his room.

The man and married woman, known heretofore as "hon" and "sweetie," who left Dahlonga recently, were seen leaving Gainesville on the train last Monday night sitting side by side, being compelled to take their departure at night to keep the bees from molesting them.

H. D. Gurley returned from Atlanta last week where he purchased one of the largest, cheapest and best line of ladies dress goods ever brought to Dahlonga. Shirt waist flannels from 35 to 75 cents per yard. Broad cloth and fine dress goods from 50 cents to $2.00 per yard. These goods can be bought right here as cheap as they can be secured on Whitehall street in Atlanta. All kinds of the latest fashions and clothing and shoes cheaper than they can be had at any other store in Dahlonga. Call and be convinced. Watch out for other prices next week.

Last Sunday William Owen's little boy came to town in search of Marshal Harbison, stating that Mrs. Wm. Stunton "had nearly killed papa." It was not long before the officer was at the scene of the battlefield near Crown Mountain machine shop gathering facts about its origin. It seems that Mrs. Stunton had told Owens not to come through her yard any more but he paid no attention to her, and on Sunday morning as he was passing through the lady with a rock in one hand grabbed him by the collar with the other and commenced striking him on the head with the sharp stone, leaving a considerable dot at each lick. Owens didn't want to fight because he belonged to the Baptist church, but pulled back until he couldn't get any farther without bursting his Sunday collar and this he didn't wish to do, so he grinned and endured it until the lady had about exhausted her strength and let go. Then he sent for the marshal so as to be protected by the strong arms of the law. The lady only weighs about 90 pounds but is full of grit.

Frank Meaders went down to Bishop, Ga., last week to attend the fair.

Quarterly meeting was held at this place during the week. Presiding Elder was promptly on hand.

Last Sunday was Hon. G. D. Bruce's birth day and several of his friends went down to help him eat a big turkey.

Judge Huff has ordered a stock law election each in Mill Creek and Anarria districts to take place on the 4th of November.

When Dahlonga is supplied with railroad facilities it will be one of the liveliest and most prosperous places in Georgia.

Those who have been dealing in liquor are getting ready for court by leaving out with the hope that the grand jury will forget them as is often the case.

Those interested have about decided to build an iron bridge across the Chattahoochee river for the railway. It will cost more now but be the cheapest in the end.

Drop in and give us $1.50 and have the NUGGET and Atlanta Twice a Week Journal sent to your address for 12 months, so as to keep posted about the legislature and all other matters.

Mrs. C. D. Griggs, now residing in Florida says it may be that she will sell out there and locate in Dahlonga. She was once a citizen of Dahlonga and we trust that she will soon be again.

For ladies capes, mackintoshes, overcoats and clothing go to T. J. Smith's Cash Store. Best flour 65 cents per sack, green coffee 10 to 12 1/2 per pound, Arbuckle coffee 2 packs for 25 cents. Produce of all kinds for sale. Call and get prices before purchasing elsewhere.

Two fellows, who had been out in the mountains chestnut hunting the other day were seen coming in well loaded. The one who carried no sack pulled off his slips and filled them full carrying them across his neck like a little child totting a rag doll. We do not know whether the chestnuts will be ransacked or put on the market in their original package.

Some of the colored people are complaining about their religious services here often being disturbed by parties under the influence of liquor. Several of their race have been selling it and some of the members know it because they have bought liquor from the parties, and if they wish to keep things quiet they must all quit patronizing the liquor dealers themselves.

Just arrived at the cheap priced cash store, B. R. Meaders & Sons, heavy bleached bicycle hose 20 and 25; baby hose wool 9 and 14c; undersuits all sizes 8 cents a piece to 40 cents for full size ladies bleached vests. Nice 27 cents; baby cloth 78 cents per bolt. Don't forget our shoe store is never a large one, but if you come before the sizes are broken you will save from 5 to 75 cents on each pair.

Photographer Bruce went up last Monday and took a picture of the Bostwick Hall, being built on the College ground, for the purpose of finishing it up so the trustees can send it to Mrs. Bostwick, New York, because the building received its name in honor of her deceased husband, who some time before his death donated the Calhoun property to the N. G. A. College which since that time has been sold and the money used in the interest of this institution.

Last Sunday two young ladies visited the baptizing over in Union county, one of them residing in Lumpkin. During the time they fell in company with Sam McGee and John Hendricks, who escorted them to their buggy after the baptizing was over and hitched up the horse where they separated. It was not long however until the ladies found that the harness had been put on wrong causing the horse to come near running away before they could get to any one's house to have things adjusted.

Is your house insured? If not? why not?

Dahlonga is now on the march to prosperity. Watch her grow. Tate and Bro. are erecting a large barn on the lot fronting Capt. McAfee's for the purpose of doing a lively business.

(Morning after the fire) "My, how glad I am I took out that policy! Without it I would be a ruined man to-day."

Remember the NUGGET is read by more people here than any other paper published in Dahlonga or any that comes here.

When in the city don't forget to call and examine Mrs. Strickland's new millinery goods just received. They are pretty and cheap.

John Jarrard, of Union county, brought one of his daughters over last week where she will remain for awhile to be treated by the physicians here for paralysis.

Solicitor Charters has moved into the R. C. Thomson dwelling which he recently purchased from its owner. It is the most comfortable and finest dwelling in the city.

Deputy Sheriff John Findley came over and carried back to Fannin county last Saturday a man named Forvis who is wanted over there charged with cheating and swindling.

Dr. Cotter, of Barnesville, Ga., after spending some time at Porter Springs, passed through Dahlonga last Saturday on his way home greatly benefited by the use of the water from this great spring.

Friday night the boys moved every bench, chair and everything they could find left on the porches by our citizens out into the streets at different places but took care to injure nothing. Boys have to do something and such innocent fun as this hurts no one.

We notice that quite a number of persons who signed one of the petitions asking for a stock law to be ordered pay no taxes on real estate, really some of their names don't appear on the tax digest at all. The tax receiver and collector should take notice of this fact.

Last Friday "Shotgun" Walker brought us our annual mess of roasting ears which he always gives us in October, and they go well with a country editor at this season of the year. We have always tried to be taught to pray for our enemies but don't you know that if we had but one prayer that we would offer it up in behalf of a friend like this and let the other fellow go?

The government doesn't treat all persons alike when it comes to distributing pensions. Some years ago in this county a certain person who hid out in the mountains most of the time during the war, sleeping under a rock cliff, succeeded in securing a pension for services "rendered in the U. S. army." He had a companion who roamed there with him during the whole time, who made an effort to draw but failed.

G. D. Bruce is turning out some most excellent photographs of Cane Creek Falls situated a short distance from Dahlonga, which he took last week while the Seminary girls of Gainesville visited the place. The falls alone are beautiful but the faces of those many pretty girls in the picture sitting and standing about on the rocks near the waters edge where it pours off from a high cliff above makes the scene more beautiful.

The property recently purchased by J. E. McGee, Bruce and others known as the Mahow lot, is now receiving the proper attention. All the undergrowth is being trimmed out and later on the surveyor will be put to work running it off into town lots. All below the old Hand canal will be left for a park. At this place is a very bold spring of splendid water, making it a very desirable place for such a purpose, and it is expected at no distant day that this lot will be dotted with beautiful residences.

Killing frost and ice on Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Meaders went down to Atlanta last Monday to attend the fair.

Some one is going to get into trouble in Dahlonga by passing counterfeit money.

A little boy of J. B. Anderson fell from a horse near the old Baptist church last Friday but fortunately the little fellow was not seriously hurt.

The Cleveland Courier says the negro who is in jail at that place for stealing meat and bringing it to Dahlonga, is acting crazy. Nothing but the chain gang will cure him.

Our old friend W. P. Gillispie, of Wahoo district, sent us in a jug of his nice home made syrup last Monday. Isn't it nice to have friends like this in different parts of the county?

A colored preacher in writing from Gainesville to an attorney in Dahlonga the other day closed his communication with "I am yours in Christ." They both belong to the Baptist denomination.

Nearly every young man who has visited the N. G. A. College at this place is always glad to hear from Dahlonga after they leave the school for other parts. R. L. Sosebee, who is now in Kerrville, Texas, in inclosing a money order for the NUGGET says: "I saw some clippings from the NUGGET while in Los Angeles, Cal., and it made me home sick and I have been wanting the paper every since."

Judge Newman stated last week that the U. S. prison in Atlanta would be completed next month after which time he would sentence all blockaders to the penitentiary where they could work and be of some service. Heretofore they have been sent to jail where they had nothing to do and were fed regularly. Now if you don't want to be sent to the penitentiary you had better quit fooling with liquor.

The continuous blowing of the Consolidate whistle last Friday night between 9 and 10 o'clock for about ten minutes, caused many of our citizens to be alarmed thinking that the mill was a fire or some one had been seriously injured or killed. A number of persons went down to see about it, the writer being one of them, who were not long in finding that the whistle had got started and the workmen couldn't hear it for the noise of the machinery.

When Little Billie tells you that the Signal has about 900 subscribers ask him why it is that he doesn't send but about 400 of them through the postoffice. And when he tries to make you believe that he is doing a more successful business than the NUGGET enquire why it is that he does not pay off that mortgage Col. Price has had against the Signal so long. And last but not least, if he is coining so much money why is it that he doesn't pay a little boy for labor performed in his office?

At the recent term of Union Superior Court the grand jury returned a true bill against Dr. Bowers for shooting Rogers and Edmonson a short time ago, who is now under a $750 bond for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court of that county. The facts in the case as we have gathered them from an eye witness are briefly these: These men while under the influence of liquor after running a Mr. Davis, an uncle of Dr. Bowers with rocks came on into the yard of Dr. Bowers and commenced cursing and blackguarding in the presence of the Doctor's wife, at the same time insulting her, which caused her husband to go forward to see if he couldn't put a stop to it. He asked them to leave and they not only refused but one with a rock said to the other who had a pistol: "You shoot him and I'll burst his d--- brains out with this rock." Then as quick as lightning Dr. Bowers fired two shots at the one having the rock and then turned in the opposite direction and shot the other, and it was all over.

Mr. Blackwell, the new Presbyterian preacher at this place, has located in the old Baptist church building.

The workmen are going right ahead on the girls dormitory and it begins to present a right nice appearance already.

Messrs. H. D. Gurley, Col. Baker and Miss Maud Gurley visited the State-International Fair in Atlanta last week. So did City Marshal Harbison.

Capt. J. W. Woodward came in one day last week with a dead ratler swung to his buggy, which he killed about two miles from town near the negro camp ground.

Park Street Inn is being prepared to be lit up by electricity by the Crown Mountain Co. for the benefit of those occupying the offices of the company at that building.

Merchant Crisson lit up his store house last week by electricity from the Consolidated plant. Gurley and J. F. Moore are doing likewise. They all advertise in the NUGGET.

Where is the Gainesville fellow who said that a man would perish to death in Dahlonga running a bank? The one here has been doing a prosperous business ever since it was established.

Col. Price, a member of the board of education of Lumpkin county went over one day last week and located another school in Martin's Ford district where the old Neisler barn used to stand.

Last Friday was Justice's Court day in the Dahlonga district, and much business was on hand for Squire Worley to dispose of. Twenty three cases were sounded, and quite a number were tried while others were continued.

We are pleased to learn that no litigation will be had over the dam constructed by A. S. Wheelchel on the Chestee river a short distance below where the dam belonging to the Gainesville and Dahlonga Electric Railway is being started. It is only temporary and Mr. Wheelchel says that he did it so he could gin cotton and will tear it down whenever it is necessary.

Every citizen should take his county paper in order to keep posted. In doing so it keeps people from feeling embarrassed many times. One time a representative while in the legislature let Dawson's representative take part of Lumpkin and ours called representative didn't know anything about it for certain until he returned home and borrowed a paper and read the particulars.

The next progressive step for Dahlonga should be the establishment of a grist mill in or convenient to town as suggested by Dr. Howard in today's NUGGET. The nearest mill of this kind to Dahlonga is three miles making it a little inconvenient for those having corn to grind. A poor woman out of bread the other day had to walk and carry three pecks of corn this distance before she could get any meal. Later—We learn that Capt. Woodward has leased the old Wimpy mill and will soon have it running.

Last Sunday at the colored camp ground the relatives of Uncle Tom Anderson, a good old negro man who has passed away, had a reunion, numbering about fifty, and partook of a splendid dinner prepared for the occasion. Other people were there, both black and white to see all this generation of people assembled together at one table for the first time, and we are glad to state that the best of order prevailed and nothing occurred to interrupt them in their happy gathering. Hon. G. D. Bruce being present, was called on for a talk, who appeared and spoke of them in the most complimentary manner, especially Uncle Tom's people. While in the legislature he said that he visited many of the state prisons and did not see a single colored person from Lumpkin county and encouraged them to follow the foot steps of old Uncle Tom who had helped to found the camp ground at that place.

Col Lilly attended Gilmer Superior Court this week.

Col. W. S. Bryson has been absent several days this week on business.

Anderson & Jones' new store house will be completed now in a very short while.

Mrs. W. S. Wilson, after spending some time in Dahlonga left last Monday for her home in Baltimore.

Prof. Boyd is engaged in making a map of Lumpkin county. He is also copying the original map of the town.

We understand that Constable Coffey has gone down to Atlanta to seek a higher position—store keeper and gusgers place.

The members of the Masonic Fraternity Want more light on the subject and are speaking of adding electric lights to their lodge.

Notwithstanding Will Price is building a fine brick store house, getting ready for the railroad, he found enough time to pay the Atlanta fair a hasty visit last week.

Judge Estes wasn't able to hold White Superior Court on account of having the yellow jaundice but sends word that he will be here next Monday to preside at this place.

The lecture of Hon. G. A. Genhart at the college chapel last Monday evening of the "Coming Man" was full of instructions from first to last and was listened to by all present with much interest.

While Gen. Warner left his team for a short distance on Crown Mountain the other day it ran away and came back to town demolishing one of the buggy wheels before it could be stopped.

No one has yet been found who is willing to carry the Elthaj mail for $350 per annum from here to Chosters daily, the price offered by the Virginia or Kentucky contractor, although a man has been here for several days trying to let it out at these figures.

Mrs. Hubbard, who has been running Hall's Villa for some time left for Tennessee this week, but will likely return to Dahlonga in the near future provided her husband decides to remain here. Mrs. Hubbard conducted the Villa in an excellent manner, giving entire satisfaction to all her patrons.

Hon. W. H. McAfee, Capt. Mayne and Prof. Boyd went down to the Battle Branch mine last Wednesday after some ore for a test to be made by the professor who has a laboratory up at the Cavender's Creek mine. It is quite likely that if these assays turn out as well as expected that Mr. Jones, a capitalist who is here now, will take the property.

The finance committee of the county wound up its business and adjourned last Wednesday after a thorough investigation of all the affairs of the county, finding each and every officers book kept according to law. The finances of the county were found to be in bad shape with only 76 cents in the county treasury and debts against the county, not including the new bridge, amounting to $5,500. However, the amount of taxes levied will cover this with a little to spare.

On last Friday white mustache John Anderson came to town with a few gallons of mountain dew, carrying a bottle in his pocket making his coat stick out like he wore a bustle, which caused Geo. Jenkins, who was acting as city Marshal during Mr. Harbison's absence in Atlanta, to believe that he was selling liquor, and when John went out of town with a crowd following him, Mr. Jenkins did likewise, and it was not long until the officer saw Anderson with a jug and made a run and a grab for the man who slipped out of his coat leaving it in the hands of his pursuer while he ran off at break neck speed clinging to the jug and got away causing several of the would be purchasers to look sad and dry.

Going Home

A blessed world lies all about us; a more blessed world looms up on the horizon line. In the light of the latter we walk and are happy. Heaven is close at hand, and through the open window of the soul we can catch glimpses of it. Its dear ones are our dear ones, and their unseen hands are down stretched to lift us over the rough places. Give us an eye to see and nothing will be too much to endure for he who is going home can bear the dangers of the journey with a light heart.—Rev. Dr. George H. Hopworth, Congregationalist, New York.

Among the personal effects of the president which are ready for shipment from the White House to Cranton, are about fifty walking canes, presented to him at different times by personal admirers.

A new remedy for biliousness is now on sale at The Matthew's drug store. It is called Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. It gives quick relief and will prevent the attack if given as soon as the first indication of the disease appears. Price, 25 cents per box. Samples free.

The One Day Cold Cure.

For colds and sore throat use Kermott's Cough Cure. It is a sure cure. Sufferers can be cured quickly.

Improve Farm Property.

The testimony as to the effect of good roads on the value of Illinois farm property is unanimous and overwhelming, and shows conclusively that every dollar expended upon the construction of hard roads adds at least $5 to the cash value of the farm, and will increase from the farm more than twice the annual road tax. Or, in other words, good roads will pay eight to ten per cent. a month on whatever amount they increase taxation.

Ho who will point the way whereby the current of your life may be changed to flow from the city to the country; that will scatter the flat dwellers over God's green prairies, will deserve a monument. So far as we can see the forces to do this are good roads, free rural mail delivery, the farm telephone and rapid transit. These are mighty forces and will revolutionize our social conditions.

Good stone or gravel roads are a permanent asset to the State, county, township and farm. If properly constructed and looked after they are good for several generations, and the cost should be spread over at least twenty years, and thus let those who come after us, and who will partake of the benefits, help bear the burden.

May the farmers of Illinois not forget that there is something besides horses, cattle and farm produce deserving their most careful attention, and that is the boys and girls. And that every effort within their power should be exerted to make the farm home and its surroundings sufficiently attractive to those progressive young Americans that the son will be willing to be his father's successor upon the farm.

The Necessity and Dignity of Labor.

From a letter of Sir Walter Scott to his son:

"I rely upon it that you are now work hard in the classical mine, getting out the rubbish as fast as you can, and preparing yourself to collect the ore, cannot impress upon your mind that labor is the condition which God has imposed on us in every station in life—there is nothing worth having that can be had without it—from the bread which the peasant wins with the sweat of his brow, to the sports by which the rich man must get rid of his ennui. The only difference between them is, that the poor man labors to get a dinner to his appetite, the rich to get an appetite to his dinner. As for knowledge, it can no more be planted in the human mind without labor than a field of wheat can be produced through the previous use of the plow. There is, indeed, this real difference, that a chance of circumstances may cause it that another shall reap what a former sows; but no man can be deprived, whether by accident or misfortune, of the fruit of his own studies; and the liberal and splendid acquisitions of knowledge which he makes all for his own use. Labor, my dear boy; and improve the time.

"In youth our steps are light, and our minds are ductile, and knowledge is easily laid up. But if we neglect our spring, our summer will be useless and contemptible; our harvest will be chaff, and the winter of our old age unrespected and desolate."

When you cannot sleep for coughing, it is hardly necessary that any one should tell you that you need a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to allay the irritation of the throat, and make sleep possible. It is good. Try it. For sale by The Matthews drug store.

Quaint Clocks of Exquisite Beauty.

A reproduction of a famous clock that was made for Louis Quatorze has been made in Paris for an American millionaire. It has some odd features. The dial does not stand upright, as in most clocks, but is laid flat and consists of a shallow bowl of bronze containing water. The hours are marked round the dial as usual, but there are no hands to the clock. Instead of the usual indication a tiny and very natural-looking little tortoise swims round to the time of day, making persevering progress, in the tortoise's deliberate fashion, from hour to hour.

Another clock reproduced from an old art treasure represented a giant sunflower with gold bronze petals and green bronze leaves. This stood upright, like a growing plant, in a very handsome jar or stand. The figures were marked round the flower, and the time was indicated by means of a very diminutive and rustic "lady-bird," traveling from numeral to numeral to tell us that "timedies," and returns to us nevermore. Unless one made a close inspection of this work of art one would not know it for a clock at all.

Look to Your Lines.

Sometimes it is a question if puffs really do make a thin girl plump. Without doubt a good deal of material has that effect if adroitly managed, but as for full, baggy puffs forming dodico, sleeves and a part of the skirt, we aren't so certain.

In one case where the material was extremely thin and the puffs baggy said puffs were observed to be so blown by the breeze that they looked as if clinging round the slimmest of beanpoles. In that case they exaggerated the thinness.

Fair ones often make a mistake in going in for a too extreme effect. Clever dispositions of lines, in seams, as well as in trimmings, with material used liberally, will give a plump effect when mere ruffles and puffs, unless gauged by the artist's eye, are likely to vary in effect from anything from an exaggeratedly thin girl to a scarecrow.

Boy Defeated Eagle.

A big eagle attacked the two children of Hiram Schmitt August, aged ten, and Maggie, seven, at Pleasant Mount, Penn. It dashed at them, knocked them down and tried to carry off the little girl. She was too heavy, however.

As the eagle flapped along over the ground, dragging Maggie, the boy bravely attacked it with a stick, but could not make it release its hold. Then he dashed into the house, returned with a large carving knife and slashed at the bird until one of its legs were nearly cut off.

Not till then did the bird release the girl and attack the boy. He was knocked down and badly scratched.

The mother, working in a field, heard the children scream and drove off the bird with a club. Afterward Joseph Decker, a neighbor, shot it. It measured eight feet from tip to tip.

No man can expect to see who puts a bandage over his eyes, so no man can expect to see God clearly who is constantly committing some sin which, although he may hide it from his fellows, is known to the Author of all things.—Rev. Dr. J. B. Hawthorne, Baptist, Richmond, Va.

No Injustice Done.

The Eatonton Messenger has this to say about the distribution of the tax money which meets our approval:

There is a disposition in certain quarters to kick because some counties in Georgia get back more money in the public school fund than they pay the State in taxes, while others get back a great deal less. The counties that get back a great deal less are those in which large cities are located, and obviously the complaint is from those cities. This complaint is made with well-simulated air of injury, but as a matter of fact there is no cause for complaint. The State taxes are levied equitably and collected uniformly, except as to tax dodgers in the large cities, and the school fund is distributed properly and lawfully.

The object of the public school laws to provide a common school education for every child in the State between certain ages. To this end the public school fund is distributed in the different counties of the state according to school population, and the counties of Fulton, Chatham, Richmond, Bibb and Muscogee, in which large cities are located, get their pro rata share, according to school population. Nothing could be fairer, and the sum paid into the state treasury in taxes by these counties, or by the other counties, had and should have nothing to do with the matter of distribution of this fund. If the funds were distributed according to the amount of state taxes paid by each county, the per capita sum would be considerably greater in some counties than in others, and thus an inequality would be created and a real injustice done. The public schools of some counties would have more money than they needed, and those of other counties would not have enough to run three months in the year.

There is naturally greater wealth in the counties containing large cities, and these counties pay more money in state taxes, but the state tax rate is the same throughout the state. The system of taxation being uniform, there can be no discrimination against the large cities, and the fact that the sum total paid by them is larger than paid by counties which do not contain large cities is merely the result of the registration of wealth in the large cities.

The whole thing is right. It could not be changed equitably, and lawfully.

Filipino Ladies Smoke 16-Inch Cigars.

The ladies of the Philippines have progressed far beyond the dainty cigarette; indeed, their cigars, which measure some 16 inches, are not intended for an evening's pleasure of an after-dinner smoke. In the Philippines they prefer smoking on the installment plan, for these huge rolls of tobacco, which measure five inches in circumference, constitute one week's pleasure for the ladies of Luzon. To offset the difficulty presented by the weight, the mouth end is filled with a soft fiber of tobacco, so that when the cigar is grasped firmly between the teeth so great an indentation is made that for the remainder of the six days' smoke the huge cigar fits naturally to the mouth, and can be held without any conscious effort.—London Science.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, OCT. 25, 1901.

Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O. as Second Class Matter.

Col. C. H. Griffin, of Marietta, is in the race for solicitor of the Blue Ridge circuit.

President Roosevelt made the White House dark the other day by having a negro to dine with him and his family, being the first negro that ever enjoyed a thing of this kind in the United States.

The Georgia legislature convened last Wednesday. Representative Bruce and Senator McFee went down last Monday and were promptly at their post. There is a good deal of frolicking done by members of the legislature but these men take as little interest in it as any two in the whole body.

Persons had better be careful and not send obscene letters through the mails. The other day Ed Bell of Jackson county, was bound over to the U. S. Court by commissioner Gaston for sending obscene matter through the mails. The case was made by a post office inspector, who was given a postal card by a party who alleged he received it and upon which Bell had written the fellow that he had sworn "a G—d—lie against him in court."

Young Harris News:—Uncle Isaac Swanson, who lives near town, was wearing a pair of pants the other day that he wore at his marriage 45 years ago, and they had been in use about one year before his marriage, making them 46 years old, and they look as if they were good for 20 years more service. This shows that Uncle Isaac did not sit around stores, on nail kegs and dry goods boxes much or would have had to be darned till they would not have been worth a darn—ing.

Mr. W. E. Crockett of Gainesville is being urged to offer for the appointment of Internal Revenue Collector, the place now held by Rucker, a negro. He is well qualified to fill the position and no doubt would make an acceptable official if appointed. Mr. Crockett was badly wounded before Santi ago and suffered for quite awhile. The fact that he was with President Roosevelt's Rough Riders will no doubt have considerable weight with the President in the appointment, if Mr. Crockett makes application for the place.—Gainesville Cracker.

President Roosevelt says: "If I can't find Republicans I am going to appoint Democrats. I am going to make such appointments as will induce every southern man to respect the republican party." Had he not invited a negro to dine with him he might have led the people to believe this. And in reference to appointments we say without fear of contradiction that no leader, matters, not what party he belongs to, gain anything for the one of his choice by appointing men not believing in it to fill fat offices.

Gen. A. J. Warner was at his Cherokee mine this week making some preliminary arrangements preparatory to putting in the electric power with which he expects to soon start up work at his mine. The General is well pleased with his gold property in this county, and says that there is now no question as to the mine being rich and profitable to work, and as soon as he can get all arrangements perfected and the electric plant installed, either on Little or the Eto war river, he will resume work at the old Cherokee on a larger scale than ever before. He is thoroughly convinced that the successful mining of the future will be done with electric power, and he is so fitting up his mine, here and at Dahlonega. Gen. Warner expects soon to have his electric road between Dahlonega and Gainesville in operation.—Cherokee Advance.

Nimblewill's School.

MR. EDITOR:—Please allow us a short space in your valuable paper, as we wish to say something in regard to our school at Nimblewill. The school closed last Friday. All the patrons who were present, were pleased with the advancement of their children. We also had many visitors from adjoining counties.

We had nice speaking in the afternoon and an exhibition at night. The exhibition was a grand success in every respect, under the skillful management of Prof. C. Shultz. We had nice music, and the house was often ringing with laughter and cheers.

We are glad that Col. Price gave us the idea of consolidating the three schools in the district. We have had no trouble in securing first class teachers.

Prof. Shultz will begin a private school on the 28th inst. Tuition, one dollar per month. We expect by the first of the year to add to the school a library which is very much needed.

We are glad to say we will have Prof. Shultz with us next year.

We see a great improvement has been made in the school, both in declamation and in scholarship. Our school was established two years ago.

Nimblewill is now in a flourishing condition, and is looking forward to a bright future. Ere long it will send out sons and daughters who will reach down and help others who are still in the rugged paths of ignorance.

We hope now to establish a permanent school here of eight or ten months in the year. We have the material, and the only necessary move is to use it. Let all shoulders in our community be put to the wheel of progress. We have the torch of education now lighted, let's add a little fuel and hand it on down. It is very essential that all patrons of the school start their children the first day and allow them to continue regularly.

"Parson" Beck in Dawson County.

MR. EDITOR:—

In last week's paper I noticed a piece about Bob Beck being called to preach. He is over with us now in Dawson county at New Bethel church attending a protracted meeting and swinging the girls high. On Sunday night last the piece was clipped out and handed to the pastor of the church which caused the girls to give Mr. Beck his walking papers, making him so mad he started out on Monday to find out who said he had a living wife. He says he will law the person who put such a slander on his character. In his talk he said he did not deny having been married but his wife was dead, and also said that the piece in the paper might not have had any reference to him but was a host of Bob Beck's around Dahlonega. Later he was told if he had a living wife he knew it, and if not he knew it. So he said that he would not swear that she was dead nor he would not swear she was alive. He said that little piece published about him would cause him a great deal of trouble to have to go home and get his horse on go all the way to Dahlonega and get it corrected and get back here to the meeting and prove to the young lady that he has been so kind during the meeting that he has no wife at all, but I think he has gone like Wards ducks. Now let us hear from you again whether he has a living wife or not through your columns for the benefit of young ladies. B. B.

Reply:—Bob has a living wife from whom he has never been divorced. There are not and never were any other Bob Becks here except this one. He came in Friday with an umbrella and a stick, the only kind of a horse he ever owned in his life. Editor.

The Heard shoals in Dawson county have been sold to Gen. Hardin of Kentucky, who was here last week.

Jim Parker, the colored "gent" who played a brief engagement at Buffalo as the hero who saved McKinley from being shot a third time, by knocking down and jumping on the assassin, and who was offered $15 each for the buttons on his coat, has lost his halo. When the witnesses were called on at the assassin's trial Jim was not among them. He was not there to relate to a thrilled audience how he struck down the assassin and saved the President. He was not there because authorities knew he had done nothing of the kind. Private O'Brien did what the negro Parker claimed to have done, he modestly related the facts on the witness stand.—Nashville American. Quite likely some of those fellows who paid such high prices for his buttons and old coat will take half the amount they gave for them now. We doubted it at the start for we couldn't believe that white men would stand by and let a negro do all the work in trying to save a good man's life.

"Parson" Bob Beck, about whom so much has been said recently on account of his being changed so suddenly from a devil's angel to a worker of the Lord, he says, called upon us last Saturday. He didn't appear at us with a fiery tongue but came with a playful mouth which he says that he will use in our behalf when speaking to the Lord. He said that he had been running a meeting over in Hall and had changed his manner of living, who now enjoys big yellow legged chickens and other things prepared for men who follow the business of preaching. He can neither read nor write but claims that the Lord puts the sermons in his mouth and he has nothing to do we suppose but to open it and discharge them like a person biting a rotten apple. That he has a wife here according to earthly laws but has been divorced from her by Christ's laws on account of her conduct, and much other foolishness like this. It seems, according to letters received at this office since he has joined the church, that Bob has been telling some very crooked tales and if he is not careful his prayers will not amount to much, if anything. And as far as praying for us he can leave that off, for if we stand no chance of getting to heaven unless saved by Bob Beck's prayers we are a gone rooster.

At least three hundred moonshiners of various counties in Georgia have received the attention of Judge Newman in Atlanta during the present month and many of them are now serving out sentences in Fulton county jail, while others, probably equally as guilty, have escaped the clutches of the law. The mountain moonshiner certainly has a hard time of it. Some times in order to try to escape punishment after being caught up with there is a few of them who will endeavor to "report out," as it is called—give their neighbors and friends away who are engaged in the business to the officials, hoping to be released themselves. Even then, after having been of such valuable service to the government some times they get left. We know of one who used to bring liquor to Dahlonega to kill suspicion and at the same time report some of his friends, with the hope of being excused himself, but Judge Newman has caught on to this and won't allow the attorney general to do it, and he will yet have to suffer.

J. M. Brookshire's name is being mentioned in connection with legislative honors and if Hon. G. D. Bruce decides to offer for reelection it will make a warm race.

Go to G. H. McKee for loaded shells.

Court Postponed.
At CHAMBERS, GAINESVILLE, GA., October 18, 1901.
Owing to my sickness, and in accordance with the advice of my physician, it is hereby ordered, that the Superior Court of Lumpkin county be, and it is hereby adjourned from this third Monday in October, instant, to the second Monday in November, 1901, at 10 o'clock, a. m. SCOTT'S EMULSION is a food medicine for the baby that is thin and not well nourished and for the mother whose milk does not nourish the baby.

It is equally good for the boy or girl who is thin and pale and not well nourished by their food; also for the anemic or consumptive adult that is losing flesh and strength.

In fact, for all conditions of wasting, it is the food medicine that will nourish and build up the body and give new life and energy when all other means fail.

Should be taken in summer as well as winter.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

CITATION.

Asthama Cure Free!

Ast hmalene Brings Instant Relief and Permanent Cure in All Cases.

SENT ABSOLUTELY FREE ON RECEIPT OF POSTAL.

WRITE YOUR NAME AND ADDRESS PLAINLY.

CHAINED FOR TEN YEARS

There is nothing like Asthma!ene. It brings instant relief, even in the worst cases. It cures when all else fails.

The REV. C. F. WELLS, of Villa Ridge, Ill., says: "Your trial bottle of Asthma!ene relieved in good condition. I cannot tell you how thankful I feel for the good derived from it. I was always a slave, chained with pained sore throat and Asthma for ten years. I despaired of ever being cured. I saw your advertisement for the cure of this dreadful and tormenting disease, Asthma, and thought you had over-spoken yourselves, but resolved to give it a trial. To my astonishment the trial acted like a charm. Send me a full size bottle."

Rev. Dr. Morris Wechsler, Rabbi of the Cong. Bnai Israel, New York, Jan. 3, 1901.
DR. TAPT BROS. MEDICINE CO.,
Gentlemen: Your Asthma!ene is an excellent remedy for Asthma and Hay Fever, and its composition alleviates all troubles which combine with Asthma. Its success is astonishing and wonderful. After having it carefully analyzed, we can state that Asthma!ene contains no opium, morphine, chlorform or other dangerous drugs.

Rev. Dr. MORRIS WECHSLER,
AYON SPRING, N. Y., Feb. 1, 1901.

DR. TAPT BROS. MEDICINE CO.
Gentlemen: I write this testimony from a sense of duty, having tested the wonderful effect of your Asthma!ene for the cure of Asthma. My wife has been afflicted with spasmodic asthma for the past 12 years. Having exhausted my own skill as well as many others, I chanced to see your sign upon your windows on 130th street, New York. I at once obtained a bottle of Asthma!ene. My wife commenced taking it about the first of November. I very soon noticed a radical improvement. After using one bottle Asthma!ene disappeared and she is entirely free from all symptoms. I feel that I can consistently recommend the medicine to all who are afflicted with this distressing disease. Yours respectfully,
O. L. PHELPS, M. D.

DR. TAPT BROS. MEDICINE CO.
Gentlemen: I was troubled with asthma for 22 years. I have tried numerous remedies but they have all failed. I ran across your advertisement and started with a trial bottle. I found relief at once. I have now purchased your full size bottle, and I am very grateful. I have family of four children and for 22 years was unable to work. This medicine you can make such use of as you see fit. Home address 215 Hildreth st., S. RAPHAEL, 67 East 122nd st., City.

TRIAL BOTTLE ABSOLUTELY SENT FREE ON RECEIPT OF POSTAL.

Do not delay. Write at once, addressing DR. TAPT BROS. MEDICINE CO., 79 East 130th Street, N. Y. City.

The One Day Cold Cure
Hold the head and nose in your hands. Most's Cold Cure—Dissolves Coughing. One Day Cold Cure

THE NUGGET

DAHLONEGA, OCTOBER 25, 1901.

Paul Castleberry, after an absence of a few weeks in Alabama, returned home last Saturday.

Several of the rooms of the Hall House have been rented by different parties who take their meals at Hall's Villa now being run by R. C. Thomson.

It is said that the woman who murdered another one in Banks county recently is hiding out in this county and parties are trying to spot her in order to get the reward.

It was reported on the streets here last Monday that Capt. Hall died Sunday at Ingleside but we are pleased to state that the rumor is not true. He will still live at last accounts.

Good home made syrup at J. M. Ricketts at 35 cents per gallon—5 cents less than can be bought at any other place in town. All other goods sold low down for either cash or barter. His motto is to live and let live.

On the first day of next month the boys within the corporate limits of Dahlonega will be put up with. The city council having passed an ordinance compelling all boys desired to be put in close pens at that time for the floor to be at least 18 inches off of the ground.

A young man from Gainesville created quite a little sensation last Friday morning by visiting the top of Crown Mountain and while endeavoring to adjust his "kodiak" in a buggy got frustrated by the appearance of two of the hands and left for another spot before he could get the proper focus. Too bad.

The other night while one of John Butler's sons was out possum hunting on the proper farm he came near stepping into an old well. In going along he happened to think of this old uncovered deep hole and came to a halt. In one more step he would have reached it and gone to the bottom 100 feet. It scared Mr. Butler so that he never got over it for several days.

At the recent session of the Chestate Baptist Association, held in this county, a majority present were opposed to Sunday Schools and voted them out. Why it is that intelligent people who claim to be christians are opposed to Sunday Schools we cannot see, for certainly they are stepping stones to the church and if they are wrong the churches are wrong. But we are pleased to know that all its members are not opposed to Sunday Schools as will be shown by a list of names and contributions to be published next week.

Rev. H. M. Smith, of Dahlonega who left here a short time ago for Augusta, disappeared from that city Monday night and has not been heard of since. He had been acting strangely for some time and fasted three days consecutively, states a dispatch in the Atlanta Journal of the 21st. Not long ago he wished that a cyclone might come in order to cause the people of Dahlonega to become christians and we believed that his mind was out of order then. Later—He came into Dahlonega last Wednesday apparently in his usual mind.

We visited the girls dormitory this week, being conducted by Messrs. Sargent and Ricketts, contractor, for the N. G. A. College. We used to shove the jack plane and handle the saw and claim to be a pretty fair judge of this kind of business and if those gentlemen are slighting their work we didn't notice it. This will be an elegant building when completed, but we are sorry to say that the trustees of the college failed to thank our senator and representative for their work in securing money from the state for its erection on account of a little prejudice existing among some of the leaders. Shame.

Jeweler McGuire paid Atlanta a flying visit this week.

Gen. Warner has been on a business trip to the state of Pennsylvania this week.

The chestnut crop of the mountains is good and many bushels are being carried to the lower markets.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner Quillian, of Land, Ga., were here visiting relatives and friends first of the week.

It is said that some sports engaged in a little target practice out at Gage creek falls last Sunday. Young men should have more respect for the Lord than this.

"Do you reckon they will build the railroad to Dahlonega?" is often asked us. It looks very much like it when they are at work on it and have arranged to secure the money to complete it.

Squire Worley has appointed Geo. Walker Constable of this district, being unable to proceed with business on account of the absence of constable Coffey who has gone off and got a better job.

Capt. Casick spares no pains in using every effort to advance the college cadets in the military department, and his social manner causes all to love and respect him. Likewise by the citizens of Dahlonega.

Some of the merchants of Dahlonega have a move on them this week. Anderson & Jones go into their new building, J. H. McGee takes charge of the building they vacate and V. R. Hix opens up a business in McGee's old stand.

Quite a number of persons went up to Yahoola last Sunday to attend the Chestate Baptist Association. Everything passed off quietly, but one or two persons were noticed who had tipped the bottle containing anything intoxicating.

Dan Corn, who killed his brother in this county some time ago went to Texas and died sure enough. Only living a little over three months. This fact was made known by proof in the U. S. court in Atlanta a few days ago in which a case was pending against Corn.

Printers get things mixed up some times. It is fleeced bicycle hose. B. R. Meaders & Sons want to sell you instead of "bleeched" hose. But we guess if you need any of the latter kind they could fit you up as they always endeavor to supply the wants of the people.

We learn that one defendant who has a criminal case in Lumpkin Superior Court has gone off and commenced preaching. At the last term of court he forfeited his bond. It may be now that he thinks the Lord will help him out and he will get rid of his case without having to go to the chain gang.

We are reliably informed that James Blackwell, residing across the mountain, brought a sick beef to town and sold it last Monday. He was on his way here it is said, when it fell and he skinned it and brought the beef on to town and sold it. This will quite likely receive the attention of the grand jury.

The Dahlonega Hotel was alive with northern gentlemen first of the week who are interested in the Crown Mountain Gold Mining Co., to wit: J. W. Hairgrove, D. Capps, Frank Humley and Hon. Chas. W. Fitzsimmons, of Jacksonville, Ill.; Dr. W. C. Simpson, Capt. A. J. Bingham, C. L. Johnson and C. M. Merreke, of New Brighton, Pa.; J. F. Hatch, Grizzell, Ill.; Dr. F. A. Metcalf, Wm. Rees and W. C. Cathoun, Franklin, Ill.; R. L. McCabe, Dayton, O. It was the first visit for several of these gentlemen to the south and we are pleased to state that they were perfectly delighted with our beautiful climate and highly pleased with the mine in which they are interested. They are all patrons of the Nugget, sociable and clever gentlemen and we hope to see them often.

Lost.—An overcoat last Saturday between Londons and Yellow creek. The finder will please leave it at B. R. Meaders & Sons and get $1.00 reward.

J. F. Moore is preparing to convert his whole block into a store soon and next year when brick can be secured you will see a nice brick business house where the old wooden one now stands.

Bob Beck will not preach at the Dahlonega camp ground next Sunday as was announced by him. Some of the tents holders who have no faith in Bob's words having taken steps to prevent it.

The Railroad Company has bought the farm on the Chestate river belonging to Wm. Wacaster, and Mr. Wacaster has purchased the Parks farm containing two hundred acres. The gentleman came up last Monday and got his money and made the deed to the company.

Our colored Baptist church was visited Sunday night by the editor of the Nugget and several gentlemen who were here looking over our great gold fields. They sat quietly and listened at the sermon of Rev. Fincher nicely and when we called for a collection they contributed freely. Come again, gentlemen.

We saw a letter last week from Wm. McCroskey to an old friend of his in Dahlonega last week, who is now in the lunatic asylum. This man used to do business in Dahlonega and was well thought of by every body. How sad to think that he has got into this condition in his old age and has to be housed up the rest of his days.

"Turkey" Bill Postell and his wife separated some time ago when the government decided to discontinue his pension but we saw them sitting together on one of the court house benches the other day having the appearance of two little doves and the old man was whispering words of love into her left ear like she was a school mate. It is thought that the old man's pension will be renewed which explains this close communion.

We regret to learn that Christian Wahl, who is well known here, dropped dead on the streets of the city of Milwaukee, Wis., last Saturday. Mr. Wahl used to own the Hand, Barlow and other mines here owned by the Consolidated Co. and had recently traded his Hedwig property in this county, but we do not know whether the deed for him to sign reached him before his death or not.

Our sanctum had a pleasant call last Monday from Dr. Metcalf and Mr. Rees, two northern gentlemen who spent several days in Dahlonega this week looking after their mining interests in Crown Mountain. They are pleased with both the climate and the mines and they speak of bringing their wives down in the near future to spend some time in our city. Come. The gates of Dahlonega will be thrown wide open to you.

Collector Richardson has not been here this week altogether for his health, evidently shown from his works as he has destroyed two illicit distilleries, the last one belonging to Jasper and Will Rider who were not at "home." Mr. Richardson presented us with the mass stick found at one of them and we presented it to Mr. Wm. Rees, of Franklin, Ill., and it is now on his way to the north as a curiosity together with piece of a still worm.

Yes, the railroad to Dahlonega will be built, as we have repeated time and again. They commenced on the dam last week and doubtless have commenced grading on the lower end of the road by this time, as the company secured all the scrapes last week owned by the cotton factory companies in Gainesville. The deed of trust or mortgage made to the company from which the railroad company secured the money was put on record in the clerk's office of the Superior Court here last Monday, and what more does it take to convince you that we are certain to have a railroad?

Is your house insured? If not? why not?

Mr. Breyman returned and spent only a few days in Dahlonega last week.

Croff Moore now occupies the Charters house recently purchased by J. F. Moore.

If you want to be prepared to read your titles clear take and pay for the Nugget.

Butter, chickens and eggs still find a ready sale in Dahlonega and command good prices.

The farmers of this county have saved more hay and feed this year than they ever did before.

Prof. Stewart represents the strongest companies in America, so you will be sure to get what is due if a fire comes.

We have a pod of red pepper at this office grown by J. J. Shed of this county, measuring eight and a half inches long.

Zeke Blackstock got on enough moonshine liquor Saturday night as to cause him to get into the lock up for an hour or two. No trial yet.

Joseph Davis, who has been living in the west for some time returned last week and joined his wife who has been here for quite a while.

L. D. Caine, residing in Dawson county, showed us a beet last Friday weighing nine pounds and three quarters, being the largest one we ever saw.

Judge Harbin, ordinal of Dawson county, sends us word that the decrease of live stock since the stock law of two years in that county, is $3,000.

Don't visit other towns and cities to purchase your goods, but get them right here at home from those who you go to when in a tight and want a favor.

Tax Collector Wimpy has done completed his first round and will soon begin on his second as will be seen elsewhere. He didn't collect one hundred dollars on the first in cash.

Marion Edmonson was caught with a slung shot and put in jail last Sunday by Marshal Harbison. So much injury has been done to window glass by mischievous boys that Mayor Price has undertaken to break up the custom of boys carrying them.

Last Saturday night little John Hachison was struck with a rock by some unknown person while passing across the square. The stone was thrown a considerable distance and had about spent itself otherwise it might have knocked him down.

After Judge Estes sent word last week that he would be here and preside and it was so announced, an order was sent up Friday postponing the Lumpkin Superior Court until the second Monday in November and posters were printed and sent up to this effect.

For ladies capes, macintoshes, overcoats and clothing go to T. J. Smith's Cash Store. Best flour 65 cents per sack, green coffee 10 to 12 1/2 per pound, Arbuckle coffee 2 sacks for 25 cents. Produce of all kinds for sale. Call and get prices before purchasing elsewhere.

By court being postponed until next month it will give defendants and witnesses attending the U. S. Court in Atlanta during October to be on hand when our comes off. That is those having cases here who didn't get into jail while attending the other court. By this means they will become more acquainted with the legal machinery.

Now that an effort has been made in earnest to build a railroad to Dahlonega and work commenced on the same do not let property holders expect to get rich at once by selling their lands at high figures. Such as this has kept many a town from prospering as fast as it would had things been managed differently. The way to build up a town is to offer building lots at such reasonable prices as to induce people to become citizens.

The new iron bridge across the river at Neisler's ford is completed.

Don't forget to go and see those pretty military goods at Mrs. Stricklands.

So far the fall and winter has been lovely giving farmers a good chance to house their corn, hay, etc.

It is claimed by those who know that the smoke from the copper mines at Ducktown Tenn., has reached this county.

Druggist Matthews and his brother-in-law have dissolved co-partnership and Mr. Matthews is continuing the business alone.

Col. R. H. Baker will go to Macon next Sunday to represent the Dahlonega Masonic fraternity in the grand lodge which convenes on Wednesday.

There was so much blockade liquor in town last Monday that one party had to carry most of his back home, being unable to find any purchaser.

Many women are not pleased with God's works, otherwise they would not stuff their bosoms so full of cotton and old rags. Some times they get misplaced and look like small and large knots on a tree.

If a girl wants to catch a true lover she should not go and stand around the postoffice every afternoon when not receiving a letter more than once a year. It causes naughty boys to make remarks that are not pleasant to hear.

Deputy Collector Richardson and Marshal Grizzle went across the river Saturday and destroyed another illicit distillery. There was no one at the time, but John Woods will have to shoulder the responsibility, so says one of the officials.

Your collars and cuffs will always retain their shape if you let us laundry them. Haven't you often seen a collar that has been ironed out of shape. We know how to handle them at our laundry. Give us a trial.

M. A. SPURLING.

U. S. Deputy Collector H. L. Richardson, who is now stationed at Athens, spent last Sunday in Dahlonega. We always like to see Hyman come for he is a nice, clever gentleman who never fails to make everything pleasant (except when at a blockade distillery) wherever he goes.

While in charge of Capt. Casick the college cadets will not have to wear their belts and side arms while attending church on Sundays. This is a good idea and should always be carried out. It doesn't look right for a young man to go to church to ask to be favored with a blessing and have a big sword buckled around him.

Judge Kimsey, of Cleveland, Ga., was down last Monday shaking hands with every voter he met. The Judge is a candidate for the judgeship of this circuit and will be hard to turn down in Lumpkin county as he has a host of prominent friends in Dahlonega and the surrounding country who would like to see him filling this position again.

As was stated in a previous issue one of the bridge pillars at Neisler's Ford was found to be cracked when the iron was about ready to be placed and had to be torn down and rebuilt. When the contractors got down to the crack they found the rock shivered and smoked like it had been done by dynamite, causing them to believe that it had been done by one of their enemies.

One of our northern friends and patrons who was here for the first time this week, after looking over the gold fields of which we have mentioned frequently, said that he was proud to be able to find one editor that would tell the truth. Every picture has a dark side as well as a bright one. So does mining, and it has been our aim to give both so that non residents would not be deceived in this industry.

Mining Notes

Mr. Packard has opened up some more new rich veins on Turkey Hill.

We learn that 1100 pennyweights of gold was the result of two days work by the Hager dredge boat in the Chestate river last week.

We understand that the Consolidated Co. has decided to build a new dam at the Barlow and start up the works down there again.

The Battle Branch property, belonging to Dr. Lombard, of New York, situated a few miles below Dahlonega, has been sold to S. A. Jones, of North Carolina. The trade was made some time ago through Capt. F. W. Hall and the check for the same is ready, but a delay has been caused on account of the serious illness of the Captain, being unable to attend to it. This is looked upon as good mining property.

Additional machinery is being added to the lot 810 mine operated by J. M. Hutchins down near Auraria, and in a short time 20 stamps will be crushing the rich ore from the excellent veins already discovered on this valuable property. The little mill that has heretofore been operating paid so well as to induce Mr. Hutchins to mine on a larger scale, feeling confident of success.

Twenty stamps of the Singleton mill, belonging to the Standard Co., are now running both day and night. The track from the shaft to the mill is completed and ore from the same is now being crushed. Thomas Ray, a native miner, has charge of it. And with an experienced miner and a good mine its owners may expect a good return next week when the clean up for the month is made.

Bryson and Odum, who are prospecting on the Consolidated Co.'s property down about the Barlow, were up last Saturday to make a report to its owners. They feel confident of making a rich strike in the near future. Every indication points to this. In the gulch where they are at work a number of big nuggets were found by different persons years ago. One nugget weighed 200 pennyweights, another 60 and many other smaller ones, showing that there is a very rich vein near by.

All the stockholders of the Crown Mountain Co., who visited the mine this week—some for the first time—were highly pleased with the operations. It is showing up so well that it is expected that they will be able to declare dividends by the first of January. While on this subject we will state upon enquiry that we were informed that no one stockholder of this company owns a controlling interest, giving none of them a chance to "freeze out" smaller stockholders were any of them of a disposition to do so, and each and every one has a fair chance. A big vein of fine ore was struck in the White oak Wednesday. The vein is 8 feet thick and 40 feet wide, estimated to be worth from $4 to $50 per ton.

Senator W. H. McAfee has 500 acres of valuable property in White county which he is making an effort to more fully develop in the near future. Already one vein has been discovered passing clear across the property diagonally which the gentleman says is worth $9.00 per ton shown from a mill test. There is splendid water power on the property and a quarter of a mile of good placer diggings. Mr. McAfee may form a stock company to work it. Upon being asked whether he would sell it, said that he would and was perfectly willing to retain an interest in it. This proves to us that it is very valuable property as the gentleman is an old native practicable miner and positively reliable.

Has the Consolidated Co. got any good property at all? has been asked us. Yes sir. This company owns some of the best property in the county and could have been making money now had the managers not had such extravagant ideas and spent their money like a fellow does when he gets drunk. They have too big a mill at one place. Had it been divided up and located on other properties and put in charge of practicable common sense miners the company would have been making money to-day. Hope that they will soon be able to get things in shape so as to get down to mining with the pick and shovel as too much work has been done by the white washer to be of any benefit to the stockholders.

Brain Work Rarely Kills.

Professor William Matthews writing in the Saturday Evening Post on the matter of brain work and its effects, says people rarely die from the result of being overworked, mentally. He says:

"So untrue is it that college students break down from the stress of study on the brain that, other things being equal, the hardest students enjoy the best health."

"Where one young man, if any, ruins his health by wrestling with mathematical and psychological problems, or with the enigmas of Greek and Latin syntax, bad habits, the strain and excitement of athletic contests, cigars, wine drinking and other forms of dissipation, and heavy eating at late hours, undermine the health of hundreds. The two little fingers of dissipation are often heavier than the lions of Euclid. Professor Pierce, of Harvard, demonstrated this some forty years ago by tables of longevity, which showed that the greatest mortality for the first ten years after graduation is found among those who lagged behind in scholarship while in college."
